to my wonderful family and friends

It would not have been possible to take the time to do all this research and put it together if it wouldn't have been for people that have helped. Thanks especially to Jim Wells, my husband and Amanda and Jaime, our daughters. We took them to so many graveyards, churches, libraries, bookstores, and trips...well, I think they either now love it or they have had enough for a lifetime. They spent hours taking pictures, videos and snapshots, (Jaime even got Mike Hanni, her fiance to help with that project "Thanks, Mike"), indexing gravestones, and walking and walking. Jim is my main support for keeping me going and driving me anywhere I want to go and patiently waiting when he isn't actively helping. Not once has he complained about the money I have spent, and genealogy can be a very expensive hobby. Thank you to Jaime, for running to the store for computer supplies and for picking up on the housework when needed, she was absolutely great. She not only helped on the trips but did all the everyday things that I let slide because of the time involved getting this done. Well, Amanda, what can I say? You have dedicated more time to this, than you have to your artwork, school, and job. Hours and hours spent at the copy machine, while I went through resources as fast as I could, helping with getting those pictures together on the computer so the words actually were close to the snapshots, binding the books, and for helping proofread when I needed help.

Poor Mike and Justin. Waiting and waiting at all those libraries on the trip and Justin did excellent gravestone rubbings. He had a knack for figuring out what those worn off bible verses said. Thank you Justin and Mike.

Thank you to Wava Rowe White for getting us started, getting us so fired up and interested in our roots back to Germany. Also keep Ruth Row Clutcher in your memories, as she obviously worked very hard in gathering so much Row information and keep people in Salem, Pennsylvania and elsewhere updated.

Rod and Peggy Mills were very instrumental in nudging family memories and helping wherever and whenever they could. Rod took a sabbatical from genealogy for a while, until I got him going again. Now, he is out there actively digging for new undiscovered facts too.

Thanks to the many family members that live around the Auburn and Indiana area that have either helped with family information sharing what they had or getting ready for our reunion, July 3, 1999. This VERY BIG THANK YOU to Phyllis Gaff, Scott Vincent, Eugene Shatto, Rose Shipe, Peggy Mills, Rod Mills, Beccy Mills, Olabelle Hanna, Virgil Eugene Rowe, Cheryl Thompson, Paul and Mary Sell (from Ohio), and my immediate family Jim, Jaime, and Amanda and to anyone else I have inadvertantly left out. Thanks to all the new friends and family members that I have discovered recently, Cheryl Thompson (a very big support) from Indianapolis, Edith Klingler from Salem, PA, Jim and Darlene Howard (wonderful people) from Louisville, David Rowe from Fort Wayne, Dennis Aley from Washington, Carol & Dave Leins, and Daniel Kramer. There have been tons of people, I have talked through over the internet about the Row, Spindler, Beggs, and Allen families, trying to help each other along. MAY YOU NEVER GIVE UP THE SEARCH....

Descendants of George Friederich Rau

Generation No. 1

1. George Friederich[2] Rau (~~Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau~~) was born 1723 in Baden-Baden, Germany, and died July 1780 in Buffalo Valley at Foutz Mill. He married Mary Magdalene Unknown in Germany.

Notes for George Friederich Rau:
George's parents are ~~Helene Salome Hermann and Phillip Jacob Rauh/Rau.~~

George came to Philadelphia on the ship "Phoenix" from Rotterdam on October 1, 1754. He took the oath of allegiance in Philadelphia. He located on land in Heidelberg Twp. Berk Co. From "The Snyder Co. Historical Society Bulletin" Vol III, Number 6, 1952. He and his wife Mary Magdalene and his two small sons John and George Jr., then left to go to Northumberland County, in the Susquehanna Valley of PA. He laid claim to land, 100 acres applied for on August 6, 1766, and surveys made May 27, 1767, land known as Row's land. On June 12, 1772, he had 50 acres in Penn's Township surveyed. On May 18, 1774, he was granted a warrant of survey for 50 acres of land in Northumberland (Snyder) Co. His Revolutionary War service records, in addition to the PA. Archives account, are in the PA Historical and Museum Commission in the Division of Archives and Manuscripts, Harrisburg, PA. George Rau-Row was one of the first persons buried in Rau's (Salem) cemetery and his grave is marked "George Row, born in 1723, killed by Indians, 1780, Der Tod Gewiss Ungewiss Der Tag, Die Stunde Auch Nieman Wissen Mag Drum Fuerchte" This last translates to "death cometh uncertain the day, the hour neither no one knoweth of Therefore fear." This was translated from "Back to Yesteryear" column by Agnes Selin Schoch in 1931 in the SELINSGROVE TIMES. In the Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery it says his father is Jacob, immigrant. The immigrant part might be referring to George.

In the" Snyder County Historical Society" Soldiers of 1776, Data of Revolutionary Soldiers of Snyder County Area by Dr. George S. Moyer and Charles F. Snyder, it says "GEORGE ROW Born 1723." His widow's Pension Application states that "George Row enlisted in Battalion of Northumberland County, commanded by Col. Peter Hosterman, Esq. Was stationed at Foutz's Mill in Buffalo Valley, said county. July, 1780 was wounded by the Indians in defense of this place, a musket or rifle ball pierced his breast, dying within eight hours after he was wounded. Was fifty-eight years of age. His widow, Mary Magdalena Row, is much in need of a pension. Pension granted" Private in Capt. Michael Weaver's Co. of Rangers on the Frontier for Northumberland County. also private in Lieut. Spees' Co. Northumberland County Militia, June 1780, Pa. Arch, 3rd series, Vol. 23.pp256-257-341-342 and 5th series. Vol 4., p 553 and Vol 8 p 680. Raw, Rowe and Rau. Buried in Row's Church Cemetery, Salem. east end, grave marked."

George gave land toward for building a Church. A quilt commemorating the building of the third Row/Salem Church in 1897. It is displayed in a case in the basement of the church. see p.XXVI

John, Martin, and George Row are listed in the residents of Penn. Twp. 1776 in the book "A Look At Snyder County Before The 20th Century by Jimmy A. Shaffer.

" Fought's Mill is near the eastern end of Chestnut Street. The nearby mill is on the site of the earlier mill built in 1771. The original Fought's mill was a settler's refuge against Indians in Revolutionary Days. Here was held Nov. 3, 1776, Buffalo Valley's first election under the constitution of 1776." This was taken from "The Story of a County Union County Sesquicentennial 1813-1963, sent to me by Lorraine Meadows of the Snyder Historical Society located in Millersburg, PA.

"He arrived in Philadelphia on the ship, Phoenix from Rotterdam on October 1, 1754. Captain John Spurrier was in charge of 554 passengers. George took the oath of Allegiance in Philadelphia." Taken from "Holmes County Ohio to 1895," article submitted by George Rowe.

Children of George Rau and Mary Magdalene are:

+ 2 i. John Frederich[3] Row, born 1749 in Germany; died in Salem, PA.

+ 3 ii. George Row, Jr., born Abt. 1751 in Germany; died 1818 in Posey Co., IN.

4 iii. Lewis Row, born Bet. 1754 - 1759 in Pennsylvania; died 1806 in Snyder Co., PA. He married Jean.

Notes for Lewis Row:
I got the death date from Dennis Aley. Sometimes Lewis is called Ludwig. Ludwig is in Penn Township in 1780. He was a Private in Capt. John Clark's Company, 4th Battalion, Northumberland County Militia, 1776. Also served in Captain Michael Weaver's Company and Captain William Weirich's Company and Robinson's Company of Rangers on the Frontier for Northumberland County, Pa., Arch. 3rd series, Vol. 23, pp.195-197-256-341 and 5th series, Vol 8, p. 659. His war information is from the Snyder Co. Historical Society, Data of Revolutionary Soldiers of Snyder County Area by Dr. George S. Moyer and Charles F. Snyder. Lewis is in Derry Twp., Northumberland (Snyder) Co., Pa. 1800 census. 1 male 26 and under 45, 3 males under 10, 1 female 26 and under 45.

+ 5 iv. Jacob Rau, born 1759; died 1795.

+ 6 v. Martin Row, Sr., born Abt. 1740; died 1820.

7 vi. Madeline Row.

Notes for Madeline Row:
This name I received from Dennis Aley's web site.

8 vii. Catherine Row.

Notes for Catherine Row:
This name I received from Dennis Aley's web site.

9 viii. Anna Maria Row.

Notes for Anna Maria Row:
This name I received from Dennis Aley's web site.

10 ix. John Row, born Abt. 1759; died February 10, 1835 in Reading, PA (Berks Co.). He married Susannah Spiera.

Notes for John Row:
Information from book compiled by Wava Rowe White. "In his pension application he stated that in the year 1780 he served as a substitute for his father John Row in a company commanded by Capt. Weaver (George Row I was serving in Captain Michael Weaver's Co. when he was shot and killed July 1780). He served two months and he resided in NU County. Wava speculates that maybe George was called John sometimes. I am not sure about that, but many of the children in the Salem Church were called Johannes (or John in English) and they went by their second name. I know George's middle name was Frederick but some family of ours that comes from modern day Germany has four names, not three, so he could have possibly been Johannes George Frederick Rauh/Rau/Row. It could be a possibility.

Generation No. 2

2. John Frederich[3] Row (George Friederich[2] Rau, ~~Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau~~) was born 1749 in Germany, and died in Salem, PA. He married Catharina Schock, daughter of Mathias Schock and Mary Margaret.

Notes for John Frederich Row:
John came over on the Phoenix from Rotterdam on October 1, 1754 when he was just a child. He is buried in Rau's church cemetery in Salem, PA. Johannes Rau and wife Catharina are shown in the Salem church records, as Godparents for Johannes born Sept 18, 1784, parents Jacob and Catharina Gemberlin. He lived in Penn township, 1776-87. He was a Private in Capt. William Weirich's Company and Capt. Michael Motz's Company of Rangers on the Frontier for Northumberland County, also Private in Lieut. Spees' Company, Northumberland County Militia, June 1780. Pa. Arch. 3rd series, Vol 23, pp 256-257-341, and 5th series, Vol. 8, p. 680. Lived in Haines township, Centre county, 1801. Taken from "Snyder County Historical Society" Soldiers of 1776, Data of Revolutionary Soldiers of Snyder County Area by Dr. George S. Moyer and Charles F. Snyder. According to Wava Rowe White's book John was a mason.

Notes for Catharina Schock:
Her parents are Mathias (1738-1812) and Catherine Schock. Catharina was 78 when she died. Catherine had a sister Maria Margareta/Mary Margaret Schoch (1785-1852) Mathias was married twice. Once to Maria and then to Catherine. Mathias is mentioned in "A Look At Snyder County Before the 20th Century" by Jimmy A. Shaffer as a resident of Penn Twp in 1776. Mathias is also in Snyder County Historical Society, Vol. 1, page 296.

Children of John Row and Catharina Schock are:

\+ 11 i. Nicholas[4] Row, born Abt. 1772 in Pennsylvania; died June 1814 in Coshocton County, Ohio. April 10

\+ 12 ii. George Row, born ~~July~~ 20, 1774 in Penn Twp, Snyder, PA; died December 24, 1848 in New Bedford, Ohio Holmes Co..

\+ 13 iii. Michael Row, born November 04, 1794 in Selinsburg, Pennsylvania.

\+ 14 iv. Catherine Row, born December 05, 1772; died April 19, 1841.

15 v. Henry Row, born 1789; died 1848.

Notes for Henry Row:
Age 59. Information from Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery.

16 vi. John Row.

Listed on a descendant sheet of Mathias Schock, Catherine Schock Row and John Row.

17 vii. Anna Row.

Notes for Anna Row:
Anna is listed along with Michael, John, Catherine, Jacob, Elizabeth, Margaret as children of Catherina Schock Row and John Row. They are listed on a descendant sheet of Mathias Schock (her grandfather)

18 viii. Jacob Row.

Notes for Jacob Row:
Jacob is listed on a descendant sheet of Mathias Schock from the Snyder Co. Historical Society Files. (Mathias Schock, Catherina Schock Row and John Row, Jacob).

19 ix. Elizabeth Row.

Notes for Elizabeth Row:
She is listed on the descendant sheet of Mathias Schock, daughter of Catherina Schock and John Row.

20 x. Margaret Row.

Notes for Margaret Row:
She is listed on the descendant sheet of Mathias Schock found in the Schock files at the Snyder Co. Historical Society. (Mathias Schock, Catherina Schock Row, Margaret Row).

3. George[3] Row, Jr. (George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born Abt. 1751 in Germany, and died 1818 in Posey Co., IN. He married (1) Magdalene Row. He married (2) Anna Margaret Weaver 1770.

Notes for George Row, Jr.:
From notes of William Rowe Zschau, in the Wava Rowe White book, "George II died in Posey Co. in 1818 and is buried northwest of Mt. Vernon at the Aldrich cemetery. His wife Margareth, is also buried there. She died in 1820. Posey Co. records exist that state that George Row II's estate was administered by his son, Samuel, and was admitted for consideration May 21, 1821. After the family moved to southern Indiana, some went to Harrison Co, and others in Posey County. Possibly second wife Magdalena is mother of Elizabeth (see record of early baptisms) 1790 census & (son 1 over 16)( 7 males under 16) and( 6 females) Rev. War soldier Record accepted by DAR. 1794 in Logan Co., Ky. c1805 to Posey Co., IN. All children but John and Frederick moved west to KY then Posey Co., IN John and Fred stayed in PA or OH. One source had George, Jr. only married to Anna Marget (ha) Weaver with children John, Frederick, Anna Barbara, Andrew, Martin, David, Catherine, Daniel, George, Elizabeth, Samuel, Mary (Polly), and Jacob. Another source had John, Frederick, Anna Barbara, Elizabeth, Daniel, Anna Marie, Catherine, Martin, and George with a notation that Elizabeth could be daughter of second wife Magdalena. I put all children mentioned down. Will check out closer later. It had George in my sources as being born in 1751 and in the Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery, it had 1750. Age 68. Parents George Sr. and Magdalene Row.

George Rauh and his wife Ana Margretha are in the Salem church records as godparents for Johan George (born October 3, 1775), son of Martin Rauh and his wife.

According to Ruth Row Clutcher, he is in the 1790 census with 8 sons, 1 over 16 and 6 females.

He moved about 1795 to Paris Kentucky. He soon moved near Russelville, Kentucky, the county seat of Logan County.

Notes for Magdalene Row:
Row is prob. not her maiden name. Her age was 37. Information from Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery.

Notes for Anna Margaret Weaver:
1820 is from Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery. Her parents are Captain Michael and Anna Barbara (Moyer) Weaver. She is buried near Mt. Vernon, Posey Co, Indiana. According to the Wava Rowe White book, George and Anna left PA in the fall of 1793 and migrated to Kentucky. They left their two oldest sons John and Frederick in Penn Township. Accompanying George and Anna were Martin, Andrew, Michael, David, Daniel, and Catherine. Another son Samuel was born December 4, 1794 in Logan County, Kentucky. On the internet at the LDS files it has her birth at sea 1750 and death 1825. It was submitted by:

ROLAND L. GRISSOM Microfilm: 1394323

Another LDS file says she was born in Germany 1749.

Marriage Notes for George Row and Anna Weaver:
Taken from the LDS internet files.

Children of George Row and Magdalene Row are:

21 i. Samuel[4] Rau, born Abt. 1794.

22 ii. Elizabeth Rau, born April 06, 1794.

23 iii. Mary Magdalena Rau/Row, born May 10, 1798 in PA; died June 04, 1865 in Fulton Co., Ohio. She married Samuel Krieger/Kriger September 13, 1819 in Coshocton Co., Ohio.

Notes for Mary Magdalena Rau/Row:
Mary is nicknamed Polly. On the internet it says she is born in 1798 not 1795. This is from the LDS files. She is buried in St. James Lutheran Cem., Fulton Co., Ohio Wava Rowe White says she is the daughter of George and Magdalena Row and was born Octo 13, 1799. I will put her both places until I figure out where she belongs.

Notes for Samuel Krieger/Kriger:
Kriger spelling is from his marriage records. Death information from Wava Rowe White, 1999.

Marriage Notes for Mary Rau/Row and Samuel Krieger/Kriger:
Taken from " Marriages Coshocton County, Ohio."

24 iv. John Row, born January 01, 1796.

25 v. Daniel Rau, born September 22, 1804.

Children of George Row and Anna Weaver are:

26 i. Andrew[4] Row.

27 ii. Anna Marie Row.

\+ 28 iii. Jacob Row, born 1798.

29 iv. John Row, born Abt. 1774. He married Magdaline Baumgarten.

\+ 30 v. Frederick Row, born 1776; died 1859.

31 vi. Anna Barbara Row, born January 03, 1778.

Notes for Anna Barbara Row:
She is shown in the birth records of Salem church. "Ana Barb., Born 3 Jan, 1778, Bap. 7 May, daughter of George Rau and wife Margr., Godparents were Michael Weber and wife Ana Barb.

32 vii. Martin Row, born 1780.
33 viii. David Row, born 1783; died 1822 in Posey Co., Indiana.

Notes for David Row:
Notes by Ellen Rowe Zachau, in the Wava Rowe White book, it says "The son David is mentioned as a chain carrier assisting with the Logan County surveys. Marriage records exist for Martin, Michael, David, Daniel, and Catherine. The family then moved (1805-1809) to southern Indiana.

34 ix. Catherine Row, born 1784. She married Jacob Kinney.

Notes for Catherine Row:
Elizabeth was born April 6, 1784 and was baptized by herself so that rules out Catherine as a twin. Catherine was either born the year before or the year after or doesn't belong with this group at all.

\+ 35 x. Elizabeth Row, born 1784; died 1863 in PA.
\+ 36 xi. E. Daniel Row, born September 20, 1785 in Penn. Twp., Pa; died September 18, 1864 in Harrison Co, Indiana.
37 xii. George Row III, born 1788.
38 xiii. Michael Row. He married Elizabeth Robertson.

Notes for Michael Row:

\+ 39 xiv. Samuel Row, born December 05, 1794 in Kentucky; died March 23, 1870 in Corydon, Indiana.
40 xv. Mary (Polly) Row. She married Nathaniel Miller.

5. Jacob[3] Rau (George Friederich[2], ~~Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau~~) was born 1759, and died 1795. He married Unknown.

Notes for Jacob Rau:
This Jacob Rau line was compiled by Cheryl Thompson unless it sites specific sources. It says Jacob Rau was an immigrant in the Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery. I don't think this is correct as he should have been born in PA.

Child of Jacob Rau and Unknown is:
\+ 41 i. John[4] Rau, born 1777; died 1855 in PA.

6. Martin[3] Row, Sr. (George Friederich[2] Rau, ~~Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau~~) was born Abt. 1740, and died 1820. He married Unknown.

Notes for Martin Row, Sr.:
Lived in Penn. township 1776-87. Private in Capt. Michael Weaver's Company of Rangers on the Frontier for Northumberland County. Pa., Arch. 3rd series, Vol 23, pp 256-341.

Child of Martin Row and Unknown is:
\+ 42 i. Martin[4] Row, Jr., born Abt. 1756; died 1805.

Generation No. 3

11. Nicholas[4] Row (John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip ~~Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau~~) was born Abt. 1772 in Pennsylvania, and died June 1814 in Coshocton County, Ohio. He married Mary Magdalena Gonser Abt. 1799, daughter of Henry Gansert/Gonser and Unknown.

Notes for Nicholas Row:
Nicholas is prob. buried in unmarked grave by his wife in the 1st Lutheran Church Cemetery, New Bedford, Ohio. The 1800 C. Haines, Twp., Northumberland Co. (later that year Haines Twp. became part of Centre Co.) lists Geo., Nicholas, John, and Peter Row. Nicholas is in the age 26 under 45 age group. From 1802 through Jan. 26, 1807, Nicholas and Magdalena Rauh are found in the Penn's Creek Lutheran Church records (Penn Hall, Centre Co.), Nicholas Rau (wife's name not given) had a daughter baptized in the Aaronsburg Lutheran church in 1800 and in 1806 Nicholas and Magdalena sponsored one of George and Magdalena's infants baptized in the Aaronsburg church. Both of these churches were on the same circuit. Information from Wava Rowe White Book. She notes this child's data taken from the Row family records compiled by William C. Row 1869-1956, of South Bend, IN, courtesy of his nephew Fred Rensberger. Some of the information is from the LDS files.

Notes for Mary Magdalena Gonser:
Mary is buried at 1st Lutheran Church cemetery, New Bedford, Ohio. Her husband died in June 1814, and she is left with 7 young children, and expecting her 8th in Oct. However, her father and brothers lived in the area and about 1817 George Row (probably her brother-in-law) came from Pennsylvania and settled on the farm next door. On Dec. 19, 1820 her father Henry Gonser signed his will in Holmes, Co. and names "my daughter Molly Row". A Henry Gonser is in the same Lutheran Church records at Aaronsburg (Centre Co., Pa.) (Henry Gansert) in the early 1800's as is Nicholas & Magdalena Rauh, George and Magdalena Rauh, Johannes Rau, Peter & Elizabeth Rauh. It appears that Henry Gonser and all these Rauhs migrated to this area of Ohio. In the 1820 C. the widow is listed as Molly Rau, German Twp., Coshocton/Holmes Co. , 1825 Tax list as Mary Row, German Twp., Holmes Co., Ohio., 1830 C. listed Mary Row, German Twp., Holmes Co., Ohio, Mary Row is buried in the same cemetery as George Row and Magdalena his wife - they are in the same row. On one side of Mary is her dau. Mary, wife of A. Holderbound, on the other side of Mary is an unmarked space (probably her husband), then her dau. Susanah Bickel, then Geo.'s dau. Susannah, and the Geo. Row and his wife. This information taken from the Wava Rowe White Book. She notes information from William Row 1869-1956 courtesy of his nephew Fred Rensberger. Note: she is called Molly, too.

Children of Nicholas Row and Mary Gonser are:

+ 43 i. Elizabeth[5] Row, born May 01, 1800 in Pennsylvania; died September 22, 1866 in New Bedford, Ohio.

+ 44 ii. Lewis Row, born October 18, 1802 in Centre County, Pennsylvania; died April 07, 1876 in Owen Co., Indiana.

45 iii. Nancy/Mary Row, born 1803 in Pennsylvania; died February 12, 1846. She married Jacob Smith April 25, 1825 in Holmes Co., Ohio.

Her name is recorded as Nancy in their marriage records.

Marriage Notes for Nancy/Mary Row and Jacob Smith:
Married by Wm. Ruter, M. G. "Marriages Holmes Co., Ohio" compiled by Estill.
Her name is Nancy on her marriage records.

\+ 46 iv. Jacob Row, born October 27, 1804 in Pennsylvania; died July 13, 1875 in Ohio.
\+ 47 v. Catherine Row, born January 26, 1807 in Pennsylvania; died September 11, 1854 in Ohio.
\+ 48 vi. David Rowe, born March 10, 1801 in Ohio; died March 11, 1858 in New Bedford, Ohio Holmes OH.
\+ 49 vii. John Row, born February 05, 1813 in Ohio; died December 20, 1858.
\+ 50 viii. Susanna Row, born October 06, 1814 in Ohio; died September 20, 1850 in New Bedford, Ohio.

12. George[4] Row (John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, ~~Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau~~) was born ~~July~~ APRIL 10 ~~20~~, 1774 in Penn Twp, Snyder, PA, and died December 24, 1848 in New Bedford, Ohio Holmes Co.. He married (1) Anna Magdalena. He married (2) Caroline.

Notes for George Row:
Buried 1st Lutheran Cemetery, New Bedford, Ohio He is listed in the Holmes Co. Burial Records. Also information from tombstone. The view from the cemetery where George and some of his family are buried is absolutely breathtaking. You look across the rolling hills (pretty much mountains) and it reminds you of Salem, PA. New Bedford has a very strong Amish community now and you feel this sense of going back in time when your ancestors lived.

His birth is recorded in the Evangelical Lutheran Church Book (Salem Church records). "There is to Johanes Rau and his wife a little son born the 20 July in the year 1774. There is given to him the name of George. Godparents are George Rauh and wife Magdalene." This does not match up with his gravestone dates. There could be an error with the German translation or even from the handwriting It has his death date as 1843 in the LDS files on the internet.

George wrote a will Dec 8 and stated that Mikel Row son of Samuel equal share with "my own children". Michael died before George. It would seem that Michael, his son, did not leave issue, and he gave that share to Samuel's son. He named Andrew Row as an Ex. Geo. S. was tied up with Michael's estate, and Jacob was living in Indiana. The oldest son John had probably already died in Coshocton Co., Ohio. This paragraph taken from the Wava Rowe White book.

I have not had a chance to see the original will, but the abstract gives all the above information plus it names Caroline as a wife. Maybe in the 5 years after his wife died, he got remarried. He was 74 when he died.

Picture of his tombstone on page XXV.

Notes for Anna Magdalena:
She is in the Burial Records of Holmes Co., listed 60 years 10 months. Information from cemetery records and the tombstone. She was 60 when she died. (tombstone XXV)

Notes for Caroline:

In George's abstract of his will, it says, "George Row, Sr., lived in German Township. To Caroline, wife. All my children (but not by name) Michael Row, son of Samuel Row. Exs. nominated - Andrew Row, John Snyder. Will signed December 18, 1848. Witnesses: John Luke, William Farver. Proved, Feb 12, 1849. "Wills of Holmes Co., OH Recorded in Will Records A and 1 Period of Sept. 22, 1825 - March 8, 1869" copied by Raber.

Children of George Row and Anna Magdalena are:

51 i. Elizabeth[5] Row, born April 05, 1794; died February 02, 1851 in New Bedford, Ohio.

\+ 52 ii. John Row, born January 09, 1796 in Northumberland Co., Pennsylvania; died September 02, 1846 in Crawford Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio.

\+ 53 iii. Catherine Row, born May 10, 1798 in Pennsylvania; died February 16, 1859 in Ohio.

39. Samuel[4] Row (George[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born December 05, 1794 in Kentucky, and died March 23, 1870 in Corydon, Indiana. He married Mary Duckworth.

Notes for Samuel Row:
He had 7 children. "History of Posey County, IN" 1886 said "The father was born December 5, 1874 in Kentucky. He came to Indiana in 1809, and resided on two different farms in Posey County, and then moved to Harrison Co. where he died March 23, 1870." In "History and Directory of Posey County, Indiana," by W. P. Leonard published 1882 it says the following: "Samuel Rowe, a carpenter and farmer, emigrated from North Carolina to Posey County in 1809."

Notes for Mary Duckworth:
Her father is Absalom Duckworth, who came to Posey County in 1805, and at whose house the first term of the Circuit Court was held. This is from "History and Directory of Posey County, Indiana" by W. P. Leonard, published 1882.

Child of Samuel Row and Mary Duckworth is:

+ 108 i. George Duckworth[5] Row, born August 16, 1828 in Posey Co., IN.

41. John[4] Rau (Jacob[3], George Friederich[2], Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born 1777, and died 1855 in PA. He married Elizabeth Anderson.

Notes for John Rau:
John and Elizabeth moved to Indiana in 1841. They apparently moved back to PA years prior to their death. Buried at Rau's cemetery. This is taken from Lori Parks posted July 6, 1998 on the Genforum. She had 1775 and 1856 as birth and death dates which were different than what is on the biographical record. His stone is in the Salem Cemetery, Selinsgrove, PA. In the Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery it says his father is Jacob Rau, Immigrant. Ruth Row Clutcher has his birth date and death dates as 1775-1856. Maybe this is where Lori Parks got it. On his stone it says 1777. His stone is partially in German but his death date of 1777 is very clear. His wife Elizabeth is buried there with her name on the back.

Notes for Elizabeth Anderson:
Her parents are William and Rebecca Anderson. This information gathered from her gravestone and from Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery.

Children of John Rau and Elizabeth Anderson are:

+ 109 i. Jacob[5] Rau, born 1808; died 1878.

Notes for Lewis Row:
Obituary that was in the book compiled by Wava Rowe White "Lewis Row was born in Center Co., PA, October 18, 1802. Emigrated with his parents to Holmes County, Ohio in the year 1810. Lived in Holmes, Coshocton, and Tuscarawas counties alternately until the year 1851 when he emigrated to Owen Co., IN. His father died when he was in the tender age of about twelve years and his mother died when he was about 35. He had three brothers and four sisters, all of who preceded him in death. The deceased was married to Elizabeth Smith, October 25, 1825, and lived in the holy state of matrimony fifty years, five months, and twelve days. This union was blessed with nine children: five sons and four daughters. Two of the sons preceding him in death some thirty years. He had fifty-six grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. His earthly sorrows were brought to a close on the 7th day of April, 1876, at 1 o'clock, p.m. Through the kind mercies of an All Wise God his life was prolonged to 73 years, 5 months, and 19 days. His funeral took place on Sunday, April 9, and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Jarvis in English, and Rev. J. F. Lautenshleger in German." Also, from "A History of Baltic" the town of Baltic was originally named Rowville after Lewis.

Notes for Elizabeth Smith:
Parents are John Smith b. Feb 17, 1774 d. April 10, 1834 and Eliz. Haines b. March 1779 d. Sept 8, 1863. Information from Wava Rowe White, 1999.

He married Elizabeth Roush May 14, 1820 in Coshocton Co., Ohio.

Notes for John Row:
John was bapt. Jan. 9, 1796 Rau's (Salem) Church. His sponsors were John and Catherine Row. This was taken from "Early Pennsylvania Births, 1675-1875 compiled by Charles A. Fisher, Baltimore Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1983 pg. 4. This information was wrong. In the Salem church records it show Johannes (John) born the 9th January, Baptized 10th April, Parents are George and Magdalina Rau, Sponsers are John Rau and Catharina. He died when he was 50. He is buried in the New Bedford Cemetery. Information from Cemetery records and tombstone.

From the Wava Rowe White book: "John's parents moved about 1817 to German Twp. in what was then Coshocton Co., Ohio, but later became part of Holmes Co., Ohio. In the 1820 Census, John and wife are both living in German Twp., and have no children. 1830 C. they are in German Twp. (now Holmes Co.) with 4 m. under 5, 1 m. 5-10, 1 m. 30-40, a fe. 10-15, 1 fe. 30-40. In the 1840 C., they have moved to Crawford Twp., Coshocton Co., Ohio with 1 m. under 5, 2 m 5-10, 3 m 15-20, 1 m. 40-50, 2 fe. 5-10, 1 fe. 10-15, 1 fe 30-40. In the 1850 C. Elizabeth is a widow and the children are named: Rebecca 21, John 19, Michael 14, Eve 12, Philip 10, Eliz. By then Jacob b. 1821 was already married and had his own household in Fairfield Twp, DeKalb Co., IN,

Notes for George W. Rowe:
This information is from the "Atlas of Posey County" and I deleted all information I received from the LDS files. I presume since this is a Historical Atlas that this information is correct...."George W. Rowe is the fourth child of Jacob and Sarah Conlin Rowe and was born March 15, 1832, in Point Township, Posey County, IN. Soon after the flood of that year the parents settled near "Bone Bank" in what is known as Point Township, then called Daniel Township. Our subject lived in that township until his 26th year having married in 1851 Louisa C. Ashworth daughter of Christopher and Elizabeth Jacques Ashworth, by whom he had three sons. In 1858 Mr. Rowe removed to Mt. Vernon and in 1860 to his present home, where his eldest son, Christopher, died the same year and his wife in 1863. In 1864 Mr. Rowe married Mrs. America B. Baker, widow of Jesse Baker, of Mt. Vernon. By this marriage there were born five children, four sons and one daughter, of whom the daughter and three sons survive. In 1888 Mr. Rowe was again left a widower, and in October of the same year his second son, Charles A. died. During the same year Mr. Rowe again married, this time Mrs. Mary Albright, widow of John T. Albright. To this union have been no children. Those of Mr. Rowe's children who are living are George W., by the first marriage; and John L., Mattie, Thomas, and Harry by the second, all of whom are married except Thomas. Mr. Rowe has been very successful in business as a farmer and thresherman and owns a fine farm of 200 acres in section 20, township 7, range 14 west, and also 160 acres in White County, Illinois, across the Wabash river, as well as a threshing outfit, and is accounted as one of the thriftiest farmers in Black Township, Posey Co, IN. Mr. Rowe has always been a Republican and cast his first vote for Filmore for president. He and his wife are members of the M.E. Church at Prairie Chapel."

His death record is in "Index to Death Record, Posey Co., IN 1882-1920 Inclusive Letters A-Z," compiled by Indiana Works Progress Administration 1940.

Other source has his name as John.

Notes for Jesse S. Row:
From the Ruth Row Clutcher book correction pages.

A story by a descendant of Jesse's, Mr. Paul Shickle of Arcadia, California sent by Dennis Aley. "David and Mary Server Row had a young German girl working for them, by the name of Margaret Maria Gross, Jessie Row married her. There was no mention that this was a marriage of necessity, but knowing our family, I do suspect this. Mary Row did everything she could to make herself obnoxious, in order to make them separate. She finally succeeded after five children were born. Jesse did not long survive the separation. Mary felt that Jesse was married to someone far beneath his station. "

He is buried at the Old Conrad Cemetery, 1 1/2 mi. east of Corydon, IN. From the LDS files on the internet.

Notes for Margaret Maria Gross:
From the account of Ellen Rowe Zschau, sent by Dennis Aley. Ellen got it from a descendant of Jesse's, Mr. Paul Shickle of Arcadia, California.

344 ii. Daniel Hamilton Row, born August 03, 1845 in Corydon, Harrison Co., Indiana; died March 24, 1929 in Greenup, Illinois. He married (1) Sarah Bright. He married (2) Mary Catherine Hutchings November 1866.

Notes for Daniel Hamilton Row:
According to the Wava Rowe White book, in a biography written by his great-grand niece, Ellen Rowe Zschau, he served in the 59th Indiana Infantry, during the War between the States, as a Musician in Co. K Volunteers. He went to Martinsville, Illinois, following his discharge from the Union Army. He and his wife had two children that died quite young. After Mary Catherine died in 1890, he moved to Greenup, Illinois where he eventually married Widow Arah Bright. She had a musically talented son. The son and Daniel Hamilton spent much time singing and playing instruments. Daniel's stepson went to college to study music. Meanwhile Daniel invented the first player piano and his step-son begged him to patent it. Tradition has it, that one of his step-son's friends that had come over to see it, then patented it.

George is in the "Pre-Indiana Births from Secondary Sources" compiled by Dawne Slater-Putt, CG He was raised by his uncle George Washington Row after his mother died. In the account of John Henry Lamb and Ellen Rowe Zschau sent by Dennis Aley, it says "An 1874 directory of Boone County, Indiana lists this George W. Rowe as the owner of a farm near Lebanon; born in Harrison Co., settled in Boone County 1852, Republican, United Brethren."

Child of Elias Row and Unknown is:

349 i. G. Halleck[6] Row.

108. George Duckworth[5] Row (Samuel[4], George[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born August 16, 1828 in Posey Co., IN. He married Martha A. Hamilton March 03, 1852.

Notes for George Duckworth Row:
This is from the "History of Posey County IN." It was published by The Goodspeed Publishing Co. in 1886. "George D. Rowe was born in Posey Co., Ind., August 16, 1828, and is one of seven children born to the marriage of Samuel Rowe and Mary Duckworth. The father was born December 5, 1784 in Kentucky. He came to Indiana in 1809, and resided on two different farms in Posey Co., and then moved to Harrison County, where he died March 23, 1870. The mother was born in 1799, in North Carolina. She died July 2, 1878. Our subject received a very good common school education, and when eighteen years of age left home and began flatboating on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, continuing at this work for about six years. March 3, 1852, he married Martha Hamilton, born August 10, 1833, daughter of Francis and Malinda Hamilton. To Mr. and Mrs. Rowe were born eleven children: Samuel, Joshua, Mary, Sarah (deceased), Julia, George, Mattie, Rebecca, America, John, and William. Mr. Rowe has been moderately successful as a farmer, and has been trustee of Black Twp. for six terms. In politics he is a Republican, and cast his first vote for Winfield Scott. His wife is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

This is from the "History and Directory of Posey County, Indiana" by W. P. Leonard published in 1882.

"Few men in the Southern part of the County are better known than the subject of this sketch. By his affability, his generousity, and his other excellent traits of character he has won to himself a host of fast friends. George Duckworth Rowe was born of poor but respectable parents in Black Township, August 16, 1828. His father, Samuel Rowe, a carpenter and farmer, emigrated from North Carolina to Posey County in 1809. His mother, also from North Carolina, was the daughter of Absalom Duckworth, who came to Posey County in 1805, and at whose house the first term of the Circuit Court was held. George was the third son by the marriage of Samuel Rowe and Mary Duckworth, who removed, with their family, to Harrison County Indiana in 1830. Here George remained until 1845, when he returned to his native home, where he taught school and engaged in farming until October 1872, when he was elected Trustee of Black Twp., defeating a very popular opponent. He was re-elected in 1874, and again in 1876, and when he had served nineteen months on the last term he was compelled to vacate the office in favor of his opponent who contested the election on ground of inelligibility caused by the occupancy of the office more than two successive terms, the result of an appeal taken to the Supreme Court of the State. The decision of the Supreme Court qualified him for the candidacy at the election held in October, 1878, when he again availed himself of the opportunity to represent the Township as its Trustee. He was elected in that year by a handsome majority and re-elected in 1880, and is now the incumbent of that responsible position. No better index to a man's qualifications shown in a hearty and continued endorsement of his constituency. He is Republican in everything that the word implies. He was married to Martha A. Hamilton of this county, on March 3, 1852, by which union he has become the father of eleven children, which fact implies the opinion that he has faithfully complied with the Biblical injunction which teaches all to "multiply and replenish the earth." His children are all living, five of whom are married. He is public spirited in every sense, and has been a liberal supporter of all enterprises calculated to promote the interests of the County."

He is in the 1860 Point Twp., Posey Co, IN Census. He is 28 and listed as a School Master. Also listed is Martha A. 26, Samuel R. 7, Joshua 4, Mary 4, and Sarah 2.

Notes for Martha A. Hamilton:

112. Henry[5] Rau/Row (John[4] Rau, Jacob[3], George Friederich[2], Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born February 25, 1813, and died April 08, 1899 in Elkhart, IN. He married Harriet Bickel January 08, 1844.

Notes for Henry Rau/Row:
They are buried in Rowe Cemetery. Elkhart, IN Information from the "History of Elkhart County". For details see Levi Row, his son.

"Henry was born in Snyder Co., PA. He was the founder of the family in Elkhart County, to which locality he moved when a young man and settled in Concord Township. After his marriage he began housekeeping in a log house and improved a goodly tract of land and made it valuable not only for its cultivation but also on account of a group of substantial buildings. Late in life Henry Rowe sold this farm for $100 per acre and after that lived retired until his death at the age of eighty-six."

Notes for Harriet Bickel:
She was aged 40 ys. She was the daughter of Andrew Bickel, who, a native of the same state, moved first to Stark County, Ohio, where he improved a farm and about 1843, he brought his family to Elkhart County and acquired a tract of land in Concord Twp. Andrew Bickel spent the rest of his days in Concord Twp., and was very successful as a farmer and business man, and gave to each of his children eighty acres of land. " (It also mentions children Laura, James, Levi, and Samuel.) At the Rowe cemetery, there is a Louisa Rowe buried and dates, records, and etc. line up to show she is the daughter of Harriet and Henry. Maybe she went by Laura too or possibly she changed her name. That happened a lot in the time period.

Children of Henry Rau/Row and Harriet Bickel are:

+ 366 i. Louisa[6] Row, born March 16, 1845; died 1928 in Elkhart, IN.
+ 367 ii. James Row, born March 09, 1847; died March 11, 1918 in Elkhart, IN.

+ 369 iv. Samuel Rowe, born October 01, 1852; died April 01, 1943 in Elkhart, IN.

113. Peter[5] Row (John[4] Rau, Jacob[3], George Friederich[2], Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born 1815, and died November 24, 1888 in Elkhart, IN. He married Eliza Smith.

Notes for Peter Row:
His tombstone in Rowe Cemetery, says he was 73 Ys 3 ms 28 d. Beside the graves of their daughters Casiah and Emma, it also has a grave with "Wallace, son of P & M Row died Sept 17, 1888 aged 19 ys, 9 ms, 3 ds. Could this be a son of a second wife, as Eliza died in 1863 and this child would have been born in 1869. And again, beside his son Henry, there is a little girl Katie (we didnt see this grave as in was in the shrubs) and she was born to F. and M. Row. Could this have been a mistake and it actually said P. and M. Row and this was another child born to a second wife? His death is recorded in the "Index to Death Records of Elkhart Co...."

Notes for Eliza Smith:
Her tombstone in Rowe Cemetery in Elkhart, says she was 45 ys 1m 9 ds.

Notes for Jacob D. Row:
Jacob D. Row was born in Tuscarawas Co., Ohio, and reared in Coshocton Co., Ohio, and confirmed in the Lutheran church. He married Hanna Knepp and moved to St. Joseph Co., Indiana May 1862 and was a Union soldier in the Civil War in 1864 and 1865. He and his wife Hannah are buried in the Porter cemetery, St. Joseph Co., Indiana. He was a farmer and veterinary surgeon. He was in the St. Joseph Co., Indiana History. This information by Wava Rowe White and contributed by Fred Rensberger. I believe his wives Elizabeth and Catherine are listed in the burial records of Holmes Co. BUT it has him buried there too. This conflicts with the information from Wava Rowe White. He even had a child by Elizabeth (in the records by White) born the same year as the baby born to he and Elizabeth. It also lists children Catherine, Died in 1850 something aged 7 yrs, son Jacob 1840-1845 aged 4 years 4 months.

Notes for Catherine Mullett:
She is listed in the Holmes County burial records.

Notes for Elizabeth Burke/Barrick/Bark:
She is listed in the Holmes Co. burial records. It is interesting how many different ways people have spelled her maiden name. It is listed as Bark in the "Marriages Coshocton Co., Ohio".

Marriage Notes for Jacob Row and Elizabeth Burke/Barrick/Bark:
Taken from "Marriages Coshocton Co., Ohio 1811-1930 Vol. 1".

Notes for Abraham Row:
Abraham Row was a resident of Baltic, Ohio, formerly known as Rowville, and platted by his Uncle Lewis Row. These family line records were from Mrs. Sylvia Syler Lahm's Bible records and family record of Mr. Harold Row. This was compiled by Wava Rowe White.

Notes for Susan Duff Shryock:
Wava Rowe White notes: Another source gives the year 1920 and was buried at West Lafayette, Indiana at age 69 years.

Notes for Caroline Alpeter:
buried at West Lawn Cemetery, Baltic, Ohio. According to the "Centennial History of Coshocton County, OH," by William J. Bahmer, it says she is one of seven children born to John J. and Catherine (Huprich) Alpeter. John J. Alpeter was born in Darmstadt, Germany, January 12, 1814. There he wedded Catherine Huprich, and in 1848 the young couple left their native land and set sail for America, first locating at Ragersville, Tuscarawas County, OH. He was a stonemason by trade, in which capacity he had no difficulty in obtaining employment, and this was fortunate as he possessed but two hundred dollars on his arrival to this country. He worked at his trade in Tuscarawas Co. for two years and then located near Carlisle, in Holmes County, where he remained for five years, after which he moved to Crawford township, this county, were he purchased a farm, which was his home throughout the remainder of his life. He died April 2, 1876, while the death of he widow occured in 1883. Carolines siblings still alive in 1909 were Elizabeth (m. Dr. Voltz), John who lives in Millersburg, OH, and Henry who lives in Crawford township,

Notes for Elijah Rowe:
This first information on the Elijah Row line from George Lewis Rowe of Millersburg, Ohio compiled by Wava Rowe White. May have been born Feb 23, conflicting data. Buried in Fryburg cemetery. His gravestone has a GAR 1861-1865 beside it. Elijah learned the wagon making trade working for Lewis Harding. He is mentioned in the "Historical Album of Charm, Ohio" by Vernon J. Miller. It says,

"Manasseh Lawver, age 24, is listed on the 1850 census along with his wife Mary, 28, as being a wagon maker. Also, at this time Elijah Row, 19 and single, was included in the Lawver household and employed as a wagon maker." Elijah was Postmaster in Saltillo...two terms, 1858 to 1861 and 1864 to 1865. He bought a home in Benton with a log carpenter shop where he made and repaired wagons. Albert, a son, bought the home from the heirs. Information also taken from "Holmes County, Ohio to 1985." Elijah is 19 and living with Manasas Lower in the 1850 Holmes Co., Ohio, Clark Twp. Census.

Information also from the Fryburg cemetery records and gravestone. Elija was a Justice of the Peace and was on the business list of 1907 as a wagonmaker in Benton. The very first Holmes County Fair was held in Benton in 1859. Benton also had the first mail to come into Holmes County, which came by horseback twice a week from Marshallville. "Soda pop was made here in a bottling company before the turn of the century, and was distributed over a wide area. In fact, the company had it origins in 1820, long before "soda" named for the sound coming from opening a bottle, became a national drink as it is today," recalled by Raymond Stiffler, in a newspaper article from the Times Reporter, May 18, 1983. This information taken from the "History of Benton" by Miller and Miller. His house was located at 6348 CR 207, Benton, Ohio which Albert had bought after Elijah died.

Notes for Eliza Deitz/Deetz:
Buried in Fryburg Cemetery, Salt Creek Twp, Holmes Co., Ohio. Her name is spelled Deeds in her marriage records. Some information taken from the Fryburg Cemtery records and her gravestone.

"Eliza Deetz Row was the "doctor" and mid-wife for miles around, riding a horse, saddle-bags loaded with equipment and medication, off in an instant any time of day or night. Her grandson, George L. Rowe of Millersburg has her medical notebook, full of her hand-written notes (many obtained from a reputable physician in practice many miles away) of remedies for particular ailments. There was a large lot between their house and the church in Benton, and in this garden she raised many of the herbs she used in treatment Her heart and home were always open, and the morning often brought surprises of newcomers in the household that had come by the previous night. Eliza janitored the Lutheran church next door. At the 75th Anniversary of the church held on Dec. 20, 1956, her son Albert Rowe told that he knew his mother had taught the Men's Class over 30 years; how she janitored the church and doctored the community." This is from the book compiled by Wava Rowe White, information from George Lewis Rowe of Millersburg, Ohio.

Under the Sedan news Nov. 21, 1906, it says, "Mrs. Sarah Rowe is very sick with typhoid fever. She helped to nurse her son through his illness." In the same paper, it mentions, " The Ladies Guild of the Evangelical church extend to sisters Row and Seery their heartfelt sympathy in their recent bereavement. May God who doeth all things well sustain them in their hour of trial and grant them a happy reunion in the great beyond."

In the Jan. 23 Waterloo Press it said "The funeral of Mrs. Rowe, who died at her home near Hessecastle, took place here on Thursday. Mrs Rowe died of typhoid fever, this being the second death in the family of the same disease. Three more are down, one with little hopes of her recovery. Mrs. Rowe had been sick nine weeks when she died. The funeral was a quiet one as three others in the family were critically ill at the time, two of them unconscious and did not know their mother was dead. The county health officer visited them on Friday and after putting them under quarantine he had men to take up the carpets and had the walls papered. New carpets were bought and all done to stamp out the disease. Mrs. Dice, of Auburn, is nursing them and today they are reported better."

In the article of their deaths, it was mentioned, " Blanch's funeral was held Thursday and the burial took place near the old home at Fairfield Center. It said the family was living in Sedan, in an old school building." They also mentioned they lived in Hesse Castle. The School was moved west (on land deeded to Fairfield Twp in 1877). The School that they died in was a church before they lived there. It was deeded to the Evangelical Association of North America in 1881.

Sarah's grandparents were Benjamin and Susanna Russel Allen and Archibald and Marie Brogton Beggs. Pictures of her mom, dad, sister, and brother's graves are on page XXIV and a picture of Miles Allen's land deed where he first bought land is on page XXXV.

480 v. Albert E. Rowe, born 1880; died May 27, 1900.

Notes for Albert E. Rowe:
"Sat. evening, Burt Rowe, a farm hand who had contracted for the summer with Bert Campbell just north of town (Waterloo) left the farm at 7:00 p.m. and came to Waterloo. A few minutes before the 8:35 Kendallville accommodation was due Mr. C gave him some money and declares Rowe was then sober, and went immediately to the Lake Shore depot, where he purchased a ticket for Sedan expecting to spend Sunday at his home directly north of that place, in Fairfield Twp. As the train whistled for the station, Rowe walked out of the car, and said to some of his acquaintances, "Goodbye boys, I leave you here." and in some unknown manner he fell from the train, when nearly half a mile from the station. The train men discovered the accident and backed the train up. He found to be badly bruised and his skull crushed. He was left a Sedan, and lingered in a semi-conscious condition until 3:00 p.m. Sunday, when death relieved his suffering. The deceased about 20 years of age, industrious, and a good hand on the farm. His untimely death is mourned by his friends. From the fact that the train was to stop at the station it is thought that he fell off the train, or otherwise in the darkness, supposed the train had passed the station, as it only a flag station, and hastily jumped from the train." Taken from the Waterloo Press, May 31 1900.

Notes for Oliver Rowe:
In the Jan 30, 1906 Waterloo Press "Ollie and Mable Rowe are still very sick and in a critical condition, but Emma and Blanch are better." The next day, Jan 31, Ollie died. After this they decided to take the remaining members of the family to the Sacred Heart Hospital in Garrett, where they " might receive such medical care and treatment as might save their lives.|" In the Feb 6, Waterloo press "Oliver Rowe died at this home at Hesse Cassel at 6:00 on Thursday evening and was buried at this place on Friday afternoon, this being the third death of that dreaded disease, typhoid fever, in just 15 weeks, the remaining four that are down with the same disease have been removed to the Sacred Heart Hospital for treatment. The family have the sympathy of the entire community. His funeral was conducted by Rev. D. A. Kuhn, pastor of Fairfield Lutheran Church. Mr. Ettinger was the undertaker."

483 viii. Blanche Rowe, born November 07, 1889; died February 06, 1907.

Notes for Blanche Rowe:
She was a twin. She died of typhoid. Her obituary was in the Waterloo Press and said "Blanch Rowe was born Nov. 7, 1889 and departed this life Feb 6, 1907, aged 17 years, 2 months and 29 days. She leaves three brothers, three sisters, and other relatives and friends to mourn their loss, which We hope is her eternal gain. Father, mother and four brothers preceded her to the spirit world. She is the fourth one that has gone within about four months from this family and others are still afflicted. She was converted about one years ago in a meeting we were holding at Maple Grove church and we think she lived a Christian life the best she could under the circumstances. The funeral by the writer in the church at Fairfield Center and interment at the cemetery there. There was a good congregation present and they were very feeling and sympathetic and gave good attention to the word preached. May God bless the bereft hearts and help all to be ready for the summons when it comes to go to the heaven of rest, is our prayer. Rev. Wm. Clark."

227. Moses[6] Row (Samuel[5], George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born Abt. 1836, and died June 19, 1913 in Elkhart, IN. He married Carolina Row.

Notes for Moses Row:
He had a government job in Elkhart. Some Hostetlers from Elkhart would come with them to visit the Fairfield relatives. Notes from Wava Rowe White book.

Child of Moses Row and Carolina Row is:
492 i. Rufus[7] Row.

228. Noah[6] Rowe (Samuel[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born December 1839 in Holmes or Coshocton Co., Ohio, and died 1913 in Fairfield Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana. He married Isabelle Smith.

Notes for Noah Rowe:
Noah is buried in Fairfield Cemetery next to his wife Isabelle Smith. Lot 106. Taken from the cemetery records compiled by Paul Reinoehl and family. His stone is a big grey stone and says mother on the north side and father on the south side. In the 1860 Smithfield Twp, Dekalb Co. Indiana Census, he is listed with his wife and they are both 21.

Noah, Isabel, Wilamina, Lafayette, and Nora are in 1870, Salem Twp., Steuben Co. IN census.

Noah is in the 1900 Salem Twp., Steuben Co. IN Census along with his wife Isabel and his son Ira who is 18.

Noah is in the 1910 Salem Twp., Steuben Co. IN census along with his wife Isabel and his son Ira who is 27 and is single.

Notes for Isabelle Smith:
Buried in Fairfield Cemetery, DeKalb Co., Indiana.

Children of Noah Rowe and Isabelle Smith are:
493 i. Harriet P.[7] Rowe, born Abt. 1859.

Notes for Harriet P. Rowe:
Gravestone reads, " Harriet P. died April 14, 1860 Age 7 mo. 14 days." From Fairfield Cemetery records compiled by Paul Reinoehl and family."They have the same records saying, " H & P daughter of N & I Row died April 11, 1860 Age 6 m & 11 days." I presume because of the wearing of the stone it was very hard to read or possibly the person doing the headstone got it wrong and then fixed it but didn't chisel out the old info.

494 ii. Almira M. Wilhelmina Rowe, born Abt. 1861.

Notes for Almira M. Wilhelmina Rowe:
Gravestone says Almira M. died April 1, 1862, Age 8 m and 2 days

\+ 495 iii. Wilhelmina Rowe, born April 30, 1863 in Steuben Co., near Helmer; died July 29, 1931 in Milford Twp. Lagrange Co..

\+ 496 iv. Lafayette Rowe, born January 1867; died 1941.

497 v. Elnora E. Rowe, born Abt. 1869; died April 06, 1881 in DeKalb Co..

Notes for Elnora E. Rowe:
There is one stone that has Noah and Isabelle's information and then has information about their children on the east and west side. The east side says, "daughters of N & I Rowe" and the west side says, "Elnora E. died April 14, 1860 Age 11 years 11 mo 23 day." Information from their gravestones. Also in the "Ashley Hudson" book compiled by Wava Rowe White Vol. III, it mentions they buried Noah Row's child (dated April 7, 1881).

\+ 498 vi. Viola Rowe, born 1871; died 1919.

499 vii. Ira V. Rowe, born July 1881; died 1940 in Fairfield Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana. He married Ethel A. Presley.

Notes for Ira V. Rowe:
Ira is living near Helmer, Indiana in 1931. He was a paper hanger for the community. He is buried in Fairfield Cemetery. (see page XXII)

Ira is still living at home in the 1910 census.

Ira and Ethel are in the 1920 Salem Twp., Steuben Co IN Census. His widowed mother, Isabelle, is living with them.

Notes for Ethel A. Presley:
From her obituary copied by Wava Rowe White.

229. William[6] Rowe (Samuel[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born Abt. 1840 in Ohio, and died 1927 in Fairfield Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana. He married Amanda L. Rohrbaugh May 29, 1870 in DeKalb Co., daughter of Daniel Ruhbough and Sarah McIntyre.

Notes for William Rowe:
It mentions William several times in the Waterloo Press, Fairfield Center news. July 13, 1905 "Mr Rowe is so that he can walk without his crutches, something he has not done for over 6 months back." On Aug. 3, 1905 it says "Perry Rowe and family of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr and Mrs Wm Rowe. ..Wm Rowe is again prostrated with rheumatism, he seems to think that it did not do him much good at Hudson, Mich." On June 8, 1908 it says "Wm Rowe is again on the sick list, and unable to walk without the help of crutches." He is buried in the Fairfield Cemetery. He is in the 1860 Fairfield Twp Census, 20, living with his parents.

Notes for Amanda L. Rohrbaugh:
Amanda married her husband's cousin, William, after Phillip's death. Amanda was the widow of Phillip Row. In the "Index to Death Records DeKalb Co. In 1920-1965" compiled by Mrs. Frances Kessler it names her parents and death date. She is buried in Fairfield Cemetery. They have a tombstone.

Wava Rowe White suggests descendants of Amanda's will want to read Rohrbaugh Genealogy by Lewis Bunker Rohrbaugh.

Her parents are Daniel Ruhbough/Rohrbaugh and Sarah McIntyre. Information from death records of Amanda.

Notes for Barbara Row/Rowe:
She was listed as Barbary in the Holmes Co., Ohio 1850 census.

Marriage Notes for Barbara Row/Rowe and Samuel Rinehart/Reinhart:
This is recorded in the "Holmes County Marriage Records 1854-1875" compiled by Marquerite S. Dickinson in 1969. I thought it was interesting that they had a marriage license issued to them June 3, 1864 but they did not return. Did something happen in their family to delay the marriage or did they decide to wait a little longer?

Children of Barbara Row/Rowe and Samuel Rinehart/Reinhart are:

515 i. Allen S.[7] Rinehart, born 1866.
516 ii. Saloma Rinehart, born 1868.

Notes for Isaiah/Isaac Row:
Information taken from Biographical Record of Salem Church Cemetery and gravestone. In the Wava Rowe White book she compiled, it says "Isaiah Rowe was a wealthy man residing in Mifflintown, PA. It was said that he made his money as a gunsmith or in manufacturing gunware. He was an officer of the bank there. He was trusting and well-liked citizen. But, he signed notes for practically everybody in the township who borrowed money from the bank there and died a poor man. His widow had to sell his debts after his death. It was rumored that one Roscoe North, President of the First National Bank persuaded Isaiah Rowe, a director of First National Bank to co-sign all loans and notes - which Isaiah had eventually to pay off. He thus had actually given his wealth away, a poor businessman indeed.". He was living in Penn Twp at the time of his marriage." They raised their children in the Lutheran Faith. This was taken from information by Elizabeth Imbody Adams.

"On Sunday, May 30, 1897 at 4 p.m. the cornerstone was laid with about 2000 people present. The ceremony started at 9 a.m. and continued through the day, with a break for lunch and then was concluded at 5 p.m. The weather was beautiful. The audience assembled in the woods, seated on wooden benches erected for the purpose. The cornerstone is the same stone which occupied the corner of the 2 previous churches with the inscription 'Salem church, Founded A.D. 1775'. On the ends were cut 2 separate dates, indicating the original laying of this stone, and again when used for a similar purpose after a lapse of 83 years. Those dates were August 7 A.D. 1814 , and May 30 A.D. 1897. The stone was laid by Isaac Row, assisted by his 3 brothers, Howard, George Washington Row, and William Harrision Row. The trowel which was used by the 4 brothers was a special trowel made of nickel and silver." This was taken from the One Hundredth Anniversary Celebration booklet for the 3rd and last Row/Salem Church built. I was told by a gentlemen at the church that the trowel had been at the church for a while, but was not sure what happened to it.

At the time of his marriage he was living in Penn twp.

He is buried in Rowe Cemetery. Some information taken from tombstone.

The following information is from "A Standard History of Elkhart County Indiana, Vol. II" edited by Abraham Weaver, published by The American Historical Society Chicago and NY, 1916.

"This native son of the City of Elkhart here has held for the past twenty years the office of superintendent of the Home Telephone Company, and in this connection he has the distinction of having served for a longer consecutive period than any other superintendent of an independent telephone comp nay in the United States, his punctilious care of all details, his thorough technical knowledge and his admirable executive ability having made his administration significantly effective in bringing the service of the local telephone company up to the highest standard. Mr Rowe was employed as a lineman for the Western Union Telegraph Co., Bell Telephone Co., and Elkhart Electric Light Co. Since 1895 he has held his present position of superintendent of the Home Telephone Co. of Elkhart, and thus he has rounded out a score of years of effective service in this capacity. Progressive and liberal as a citizen, Mr. Rowe is not constrained by strict partisan lines in politics and gives his support to men and measures meeting the approval of his judgement, without defining for himself any specific political affiliation. He served for some time as member of the city fire department of Elkhart and is still actively identified with the Firemen's Benevolent & Protective Order of Elks, and with court Elkhart, No. 4403 Independent Order of Foresters, of which organization he served for several terms as treasurer.

Notes for Sarah Magdalina Row:
She is buried by her parents. I have conflicting data. This information shown is from the Wava Rowe White book and was given to her to see by George L. Rowe (Elijah Rowe's grandson by Albert Rowe). In the cemetery book on page 55, it says under Elijah and Eliza Rowe "dt Sarah M d Nov. 11, 1867 23 yr 9-2. If this record was true, Eliza would have been only 14 when she had her. Wava had 1855. But if it was 1867 then she would have only been 6 when she had Nancie. Very confusing.

Child of Sarah Row and James Lemmon is:

\+ 795 i. Nancie[8] Lemmon, born October 05, 1875; died July 23, 1910.

476. David Miles[7] Rowe (Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born October 18, 1869 in Indiana, and died February 01, 1948 in Indiana. He married Jennora Spindler September 03, 1901 in DeKalb Co., Indiana, daughter of Nicholas Spindler and Barbara Amstead/Amstutz.

Notes for David Miles Rowe:
David worked as a timber cutter for the Greenler Company in 1900. He was shot in a bar in February of 1900, and the gentleman that shot him was tried for attempted murder. David testified that he used to live in Fairfield but now lived in Auburn. The man who shot him received two to fourteen years in the penitentiary. In the Auburn courier, March 1900, it states that "Mrs. Rowe of near Sedan came down Sat. and is at the bedside of her son, David Rowe, who was shot by George Green Friday evening." Later he became a farmer. David is shown in the 1910 Fairfield census with wife Jenora (34), and children Odellia (step) 14, Thelmer 7, Allen 6, Harold 5, Wilber, 4, Herbert 3, and Franklin 6 months. They were living close to William Kessler. Rod Mills recalls "Grandpa Rowe sat by an old potbellied stove in a rocker. I used to tease him and he would try to catch me with the hook on his cane. I remember Grandpa had a team of horses that he was quite proud of. The horses seemed huge to a six year old."

In the August 27, 1937 Steuben Republican, "Visitors in the Dave Rowe home over the week-end were: Nora Spindler and granddaughter of Dalton, Ohio, Thelma Rowe and family of Stroh, R. L. Mills and family of Angola, Earl Husselman and family of near Auburn and Ross Motormore and daughter. " Thelma should Thelmer, R. L. Mills should be R. T. Mills (Russell Thomas and Golda Rowe Mills), and Motormore should be Mortimer (Ross was Alice Spindler's son) Alice was Jennora's half sister.

Virgil Eugene Rowe said that his dad used to visit David at his Steuben County farm. I guess they just kind of grew apart when they had their own families to look out for.

He died at age 77 years 3 months and thirteen days. His obituary (which Phyllis Gaff, Harold Rowe's daughter, still had) said he spent 50 years in DeKalb Co., and the remaining years in Steuben County south of Salem Center. The services were held at the Ashley-Hudson Church of the Nazarene on Feb. 4 with Rev. Jesse Martin and Rev. Charles Brand. He had one brother still alive. Elza of Garrett and three sisters, Nora Spindler of Dalton, Ohio, Emma Husselman of Auburn, IN, and Mrs. Mabel Sell of Canton, Ohio. Information from his obituary.

See pictures on I, XXIII, XXVII, XXXIV. Obituary has birth date wrong. Page: LVII.

Notes for Jennora Spindler:
Rod Mills recalls, "Grandma cooked on a wood burning stove. She would bake bread, which was delicious right out of the oven. She had a sewing machine that she pumped with her foot. She would serve us milk warm, usually right after the cows were milked. I learned quickly that I didn't like this raw milk. Their home did not have electricity or indoor plumbing. The home burned after 1952." Jennora apparently added three years to her age when she married Henry. In her marriage records, she said she was 19 but she was actually 16 years of age.

See pictures on pages I, VI, XVII, XXIII, XXVII, XLVI XLIX, LVII in the Rowe book.

Jennora's Grandparents were Jacob and Mary Spindler. See page XXIV in the Rowe book.

For a map where Nicholas had land in Union Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana see page XXXVIII in the Rowe Book (it is under his father's name, a part owner).

When she died, she was 76 years, 9 months, and 19 days. Her funeral was held Nov 18, 1952 and was held at the Church of the Nazarene with Rev. Charles Brand and Rev. Floyd L. Zurcher. Information from card given at funeral (Phyllis Gaff let us copy it)

She is listed as 19 and born in 1873 in her marriage records to Henry Miller. I presume she lied about her age because she was only 16 and was marrying someone 39 years old.

Children of David Rowe and Jennora Spindler are:

477. Nora A.[7] Rowe (Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born March 1873. She married Laurel G. Spindler March 19, 1895 in DeKalb Co., son of Nicholas Spindler and Barbara Amstead/Amstutz.

Notes for Nora A. Rowe:
Nora and Laurel raised her niece, Mabel Rowe, when her mother died of typhoid leaving her an orphan at 13. She was David Rowe's sister. (See pages I, III, XXVII)

Notes for Laurel G. Spindler:
Laurel found a mastodon on his father's farm. It was located on CR 14, Waterloo, Indiana. See page XLIII, XLIV.

Marriage Notes for Nora Rowe and Laurel Spindler:
Her marriage is recorded in the DeKalb Co. marriages.

Child of Nora Rowe and Laurel Spindler is:

\+ 872 i. Estella R.[8] Spindler, born July 27, 1895 in near Hudson, Indiana; died September 13, 1971 in Maricopa Co.,Scottsdale, Arizona.

479. Emma Alice[7] Rowe (Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born March 12, 1877, and died December 25, 1961 in Indiana. She married Calvin H. Husselman December 24, 1909 in DeKalb Co., Indiana.

Notes for Emma Alice Rowe:
Her birthday is recorded in Vol. 1, "Birth Records. Births Prior to 1882", compiled by Troas Wise, 1987. Emma had typhoid and was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital. She survived. Her grave is in the Hamilton Cemetery where Horace, her son is now buried. The cemetery records say that her monument is off base and in a pile of displaced stones. "Cemetery Records of Steuben Co." compiled by Lewis. (see page III, XXVII).

Notes for Calvin H. Husselman:
He was married twice before. He was the son of George W. Husselman.

Marriage Notes for Emma Rowe and Calvin Husselman:
Their marriage records are recorded in the DeKalb Country Marriage Records.

Children of Emma Rowe and Calvin Husselman are:

873 i. Otto[8] Rowe, born Abt. 1901 in Dekalb Co.; died February 13, 1907 in Garrett, DeKalb Co., IN..

Notes for Otto Rowe:
Otto died of typhoid fever. Within two months he had three uncles, one aunt, and his grandmother die of typhoid. He was the last of the group to die. In the Feb 14, 1907 Waterloo Press mentioned "Yesterday at about noon, the fifth death in the Rowe family occurred at the Garrett Hospital. Undertaker Wttinger was sent for to come after the body of Otto, the five year old boy who died from typhoid fever. The remains were brought to the undertaking morgue of Ettinger and Son, on Marion street, and prepared for burial, which will probably occur at Fairfield Center today."

\+ 874 ii. Horace Wilson Husselman, born November 11, 1912 in Auburn, IN; died November 15, 1969.

481. Elza A.[7] Rowe (Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born 1882, and died April 20, 1955 in Dekalb County, Indiana. He married Nellie N. Casselman March 24, 1902 in DeKalb Co., daughter of Martin Casselman and Rebecca Strow.

Notes for Elza A. Rowe:
Elza lived in Sedan, then moved to Garrett, Indiana. Elza/Elsa and Nellie are buried in Cedar Lake Cemetery. This cemetery is located north of US 6 in DeKalb County on Co Rd. 20 between CR27 and CR23. In 1906 he moved to the Spindler farm on CR14, Fairfield Twp for a time. The family tree part of this line is from Darlene Howard from Louisville, KY. Other references are from The Waterloo Press and Sedan news. Also from a source: How to Do Things (Copyright 1919) Wilmer Atkinson Co. Publishers of the Farm Journal Washington Square, Philadelphia 1920. "Rowe, Elza (w Nellie ch Donna, Arthur, Cecil, Frank, Elmer, Pearl, Irene, Helen) laborer O H&L R3 Waterloo 16." In the May 25, 1905 Waterloo Press it says "Elsie Rowe's baby is sick with the mumps." It is under Sedan news. April 4 it says "Elsie Row moved into the Webb Harnish house last week." Elza had his middle initial on the birth records for his children in the "Index to birth records DeKalb co. 1882-1920." Elza also had his middle initial in this death record in "Index to Death Records DeKalb Co., IN 1920-1965". Elza's name is misspelled in his marriage records, Elsis A. (see pages IV, VI)

Notes for Nellie N. Casselman:
Taken from her gravestone at Cedar Lake Cemetery. See page V. Her parents were Martin and Rebecca Brand Casselman. Death date from her death records. Obituary: Page LV.

884 x. Stillborn Rowe, born 1920.

885 xi. Paul Raymond Rowe. He married Unknown.

Notes for Paul Raymond Rowe:
I was given the birth date of 1918. In the Index to Birth Records of DeKalb 1921-1944 it has May 20, 1921.

\+ 886 xii. Virgil Eugene Rowe, born 1922.

484. Edgar W.[7] Rowe (Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born November 07, 1889 in Indiana, and died February 1939. He married Jesse A. Eachers/Euchues.

Notes for Edgar W. Rowe:
When his mother, sister, brothers, and nephew died, he got sick with typhoid also. Some say he died and others say he lived around Garrett and had 2 or 3 children. Some one even said he went by the name of Nicholas. Recent information confirms he lived in Smithfield Township, married and had at least 4 children. In the Feb 14, 1907 paper it says "Edgar Rowe, youngest brother of David and Elsie Rowe was taken to Garrett last Friday and placed in the hospital. He has typhoid and this makes the fourth one from the same family now in the hospital."

In the Oct 18, 1900 Auburn Courier, under a School Report for Fairfield, Edgar and Mabel Rowe received a good attendance report, they were gone but one day.

He is listed in the 1920 Smithfield Twp, DeKalb Co. Census, 30 and he put down that he is a laborer.

Edgar did live in Garrett for a while, with his brother Elza. According to Virgil Eugene Rowe, he was called Nick.

Death date from Wava Rowe White. Sent to her by an descendant of Edgar's. He is suppose to be buried in Cedar Lake Cemetery. So far, I have not found a stone or record of this.

Notes for Jesse A. Eachers/Euchues:
She is in the 1920 Smithfield Twp, Dekalb Co. Census, age 21.

Children of Edgar Rowe and Jesse Eachers/Euchues are:

899 iii. Myrtle Row, born Abt. 1896.

495. Wilhelmina[7] Rowe (Noah[6], Samuel[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born April 30, 1863 in Steuben Co., near Helmer, and died July 29, 1931 in Milford Twp. Lagrange Co.. She married Werner Reinhart March 27, 1884 in Steuben Co., IN.

Notes for Wilhelmina Rowe:
Sometimes called Mina. A copy of her obituary was given to me by Eugene Shatto, in 1999. It reads "Wilhelmina Rowe, daughter of Noah and Isabell Rowe, was born in Salem township, Steuben county, Indiana, near Helmer, April 30, 1863 and departed this life July 29, 1931 at her home in Milford township, Lagrange county, IN, being 68 years, 2 months and 29 days of age. She grew to womanhood in Salem township and finished her education at Angola, Indiana and on March 27, 1884, was united in marriage to Werner Reinhart, of Lagrange county. To this union was born one daughter, Marguerite Bell, the wife of Rev. M. R. Tatman. At the altar of the Church of God at Helmer, Indiana, the entire family was converted in 1898 in a revival meeting conducted by Rev. MacClellan, and all of them followed on in the ordinance of water Baptism in Long Lake, and have always clung to the faith of the Gospel. At the conversion she had a bright and glowing witness of sins forgiven and while in the Spirit had a vision of a great hand inscribing her name in the 'Book of Life.' She leaves to mourn their loss a loving and faithful husband, one daughter, Mrs. M. R. Tatman, of Clare, Mich; one granddaughter, Mrs. Sylvia Levell, of Oakland, Calif.; three grandsons, Fern M. Tatman, of Oakland, Calif., Paul Tatman of Clare, Mich., and John Tatman of Clare, Mich., and one great-grandchild, Robert Levell. also two brothers, Lafayette Rowe, of Helmer, Indiana, Ira Rowe, of Helmer, and one sister Mrs. Viola Hanes of Helmer, besides a host of neighbors and friends. Her father and mother and three sisters proceeded her to the home beyond, several years ago. Funeral services were held in the Church of God, at Helmer, IN, August 1, conducted by her pastor Rev. Emma L. Isenberg, of Fort Wayne. Interment in the Fairfield Center cemetery, five miles south east of Helmer , IN. During her illness while in Portland Ore., several years ago, she was inspired to write these verses: 'Our Saviour' 'Upon the cross, by cruel hands...They nailed our Lord and King,...Who came to save us from sin,..If we repent, and He will reign within...He yielded up, his life for us,...The Precious Lamb of God...Whose life was holy and divine,..But the rugged path, He trod..He's coming back to earth again,...To claim us, as His own...And we shall see Him as He Is...And praise him round the throne " see (XXII and XXX)

Notes for Werner Reinhart:
His services were at Louie Berhalter and Son Funeral Home April 27, 1940. The Clergyman officiating was Rev. Glenn Rowe. He is buried in the Fairfield Center Cemetery. (see XXII)

Child of Wilhelmina Rowe and Werner Reinhart is:

496. Lafayette[7] Rowe (Noah[6], Samuel[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born January 1867, and died 1941. He married (1) Florence. He married (2) Rosa L. Hovarter September 02, 1887 in DeKalb Co..

Notes for Lafayette Rowe:
Lafayette Rowe's address is Helmer in 1931. See page XXII.

In the 1900 Census, he is widowed with a son (I can't read the name but he is 9). The next census, 1910, he has been married 6 years (remarried). It shows that it is his second marriage and her first. But she has two children, both living. A 25 year old daughter is living with her. And I presume Lafayette's son. His name is Frank and he is 20.

Notes for Florence:
In the 1910 Salem Twp., Steuben Co. IN census it shows that she and Lafayette have been married 6 years. She had two children, both of which are living.

572. Isaac[7] Row (Isaiah/Isaac[6], Peter[5], Frederick[4], George[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau). He married Elizabeth Andrews.

Notes for Isaac Row:
He had a dairy farm just outside the town of Fostoria, Ohio.

Notes for Elizabeth Andrews:
Elizabeth and her sister Ella (who married Elizabeth's husbands's brother) came from Reed's Gap, PA. Their parents were John and Sarah Daugherty Andrews who were proud Scots-Irish stock and held in high esteem by their neighbors and friends. This information from the Wava Rowe White book, information compiled by Elizabeth Imbody Adams. It is said that folks around Fostoria referred to Elizabeth as "that stately and beautiful Mrs. Rowe." She was described as being about five feet ten, with big brown eyes, and shiny, silky, thick brown hair. Her husband was taller than she, with twinkly blue eyes, wide cheekbones, Elizabeth Imbody Adams, his granddaughter remembers him as having a precisely-trimmed mustache and silvery, white hair - a truly handsome and distinguished old gentleman. Elizabeth says that her grandmother saved her life when she was about 4 years old, her dress caught fire at Christmas time from a gas heater on the farmhouse back porch. Her grandmother died the next year after a gall-stone operation.

He married Etta Mae Pontius November 12, 1904 in DeKalb Co., daughter of Samuel Pontius and Lucy Danuff.

Notes for Ora E. Rowe:
He was the Fairfield Twp. Trustee for many years. Birth information from "Pre-1882 Indiana Births from Secondary Sources." compiled by Dawne Slater-Putt, CG. Also recorded in DeKalb Co. Births prior to 1882. When he was 94, he fell and broke his hip and had a new socket placed in his hip, and within a few weeks was up walking around with the aid of a walker. This information was from the "Making Local History Live" covering the Bicentennial of Corunna. (See page XX) He was 95 when he died. His obituary was in the Evening Star, November 7, 1975. Obituary: Page LV.

Notes for Etta Mae Pontius:
In the birth records of Dorothy June Rowe, it says she also goes by Henrietta Pontius. In the Auburn Courier, Aug 1906, it says "Miss Mildred Gushwa visited her aunt, Mrs. Etta Rowe of Corunna. Also it says "Ora Rowe will move on the Gushwa farm this fall." Her father was Samuel and Lucy (Dahuff) Pontius. She died when she was 93. In the "Making Local History Live" it says Etta was a member of the "The Home Demonstration Club of Fairfield Twp and was honored for being a 50 year member in 1972.

She also was an original member of "The Jolly Dozen Club". It started when a dozen neighborhood women decided to have a get together to work on sewing at each other's houses and making quilts. She was the sister of Rev. Myron Pontius and Mrs. Leslie Tappan. (See page XX) Her birth is recorded in the "Births of DeKalb County Prior to 1882." 865. Allen Franklin[8] Rowe (David Miles[7], Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born November 09, 1903 in DeKalb Co., and died November 17, 1967 in Auburn, IN. He married Carrie Lucille/Peggy Nelson October 14, 1924 in Angola, Indiana.

Notes for Allen Franklin Rowe:
Allen always seemed very interesting to me. He was known for wiggling his eyebrows and we have movie pictures of him doing that very thing. He also worked at Rieke Corp. and loved to travel. Allen passed away from a stroke and had emphysema. See pages I, II, VI, XIV, XVII, XXIII, XXIX, XLIX.

Notes for Carrie Lucille/Peggy Nelson:
Peggy, as a child and young woman, cleaned house for 10 cents an hour. That is how she met Allen Rowe, her future husband. She worked across the road from the David Rowe farm when she was about 17. She also wed onions for 10 cents an hour. After she married Allen, she said they grew their own onions and sold them. Peggy went to school at Helmer and Salem elementary schools and then went to Salem High School. Her real name is Carrie Lucille but for as long as I can remember, we called her Peggy. We did name Amanda, our daughter, Amanda Lucille, after her. For many years Peggy had Rowe Reunions and my first memories of getting together with family and of Peggy was Peggy and Allen showing home movies from their trips. I still remember, even now, those exotic flowers from Hawaii that were as big as plates. Peggy has always liked doing crafts. She has made many beautiful afghans, blankets, dolls, beaded crafts, plastic canvas projects, etc. She and dad used to take their crafts they made to Ben Davis Craft Show for many years. They would set up their booth beside their longtime friends, Mary and George McNutt. She has also been a very hard worker all her life, working as a child and then she worked for thirty years at Reike Corporation at Auburn. She still works hard, doing her own cleaning and a lot of her yard work herself. She also still enjoys being around family and friends and going to the Senior Citizen center and church when she is able.

She wrote a down the history of her life for Sandy Huffman (her granddaughter). Peggy gave me a copy for this book.

"To tell a little bit of my life history. I was born on a farm located northwest of Salem Center, a very small town in Indiana. As I grew up in this area, I attended the Salem Center High School, which was later replaced with a new one built just one mile south of Salem Center. In the year of 1924, on Oct 14, I was married to Allen Rowe, also of that area and we were blessed with four lovely children. Many of these years were spent caring for our children but as time went by we were able to do some travelling to the states of New Jersey, Florida, California, and Hawaii. Our main interest in visiting Hawaii, was to visit the Royal Hawaiian, where our youngest son Bernard would stay when on leave from his Navy duties. We also visited other points of interest while there such as the cemetery where Ernie Pyle is buried and the sunken Arizona where seventeen hundred of our boys were killed during the attack of Pearl Harbor on Dec 7, 1941. The year of the following year of 1967, my husband passed away at the age of 64. I remained a widow for seven years and in this time, I did some traveling returning to Florida, California, and Hawaii, plus a twenty-three day tour of thirteen countries in Europe. Again my main interest in this trip was to visit the beautiful university town of Heidelberg where our oldest son, Richard, was stationed on the military police force after the end of World War II, of which he served in the army. In 1974 I was united in marriage to Russ Mills, originally from Cornwall Canada and we also did some traveling. Some by ships to Jamaica, Grand Cayman Islands, Nassau, Freeport, and South America besides Canada, Nova Scotia, California, and Florida, where we spent our winters in Pinellas Park returning to my home in Auburn, Indiana each spring during months of May. While in Florida, we took many tours of the state and was active members of the Senior Center organizations there. We had many good times, also some sad one in the twelve and one half years of our marriage. Two of our dear sons, a son-in-law, a nephew was taken from us very suddenly in a period of 1 1/2 years. In the month of June 1987, my husband also passed away very sudden so this article tell of my happy and sad times. I am now at the age of 91 years this last May 26 and spend my winters in Pinellas Park, Florida. I have 3 remaining children and 14 grandchildren, and 27 great grandchildren at this date as I write this on September 22, 1998."

866. Harold Miles[8] Rowe (David Miles[7], Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born February 19, 1905 in Fairfield Twp, Dekalb Co., IN, and died February 28, 1965 in Steuben County, IN. He married Mable Albright April 04, 1926 in Hudson, IN, daughter of Frank Albright and Stella Myers.

Notes for Harold Miles Rowe:
I don't remember much about Harold. I remember mom being really sad when he died so unexpectedly. He died of a sudden coronary occlusion. He had gone to the barn to take care of his cattle and suffered the seizure and died. Mabel found him. Information from "The Waterloo Press" obituary, March 4, 1965. See pages: I, II, VI, XIV, XXIII, XXVII, XXIX, XLVI, XLIX.

Notes for Mable Albright:
Information from the gravestone and cemetery records of Circle Cemetery, Steuben Co., IN. My first childhood memory was of going to Aunt Mable's and asking if she had any chocolate ice cream. I wasn't allowed to ask if I could have some, but I got away with strong hints. I was four. I also remember Mable hiring Mom and I to throw rocks from her farm field, and that was back breaking work. Mable also used to have a nut tree and she used to let me go throw them out of her yard, to save her lawn mower. She paid me a few cents spending money for this. But I really think it was a way to get me out of their hair, while they could talk grownup talk. (see pages II, XXIII, XLVI XLIX) Obituary: Page VIII.

870. Golda Marie[8] Rowe (David Miles[7], Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born November 17, 1911 in DeKalb County, Indiana, and died June 30, 1972 in DeKalb Memorial Hospital, residence Ashley. She married Russell Thomas Mills February 22, 1930 in Howe Military Chapel, Lagrange, County, Indiana, son of Thomas Mills and Mabel Waldorf.

Notes for Golda Marie Rowe:
Golda lived on the Spindler farm when she was younger until they moved (after the 1920 census) to a farm south of Salem Center, Steuben, Co., Indiana. She weeded onions when she was a girl to raise money. Golda was the captain of the basketball team, and in 1930 they won the Steuben County Tourney. Her brother Pete was on the boys team and they won that year also. Golda enjoyed hunting and fishing with her eight brothers. She, again, was able to hunt and fish when Russell and Golda moved back to Indiana in 1953. She was a very good fisherman. Stories were told of how she would lay down on the ice and look down into the water to see if there were any big fish down there ready to be caught. She did not try to get a driver's license until she was about 50. When she did, she had an accident running off the road due to a broken tie rod. She was so embarrassed because they put it in the paper. I found it in the paper recently. It is in the May 25, 1961 addition of "The Waterloo Press." See Page LIX.

In the tradition of her mom, Golda (my mom) always made these huge family dinners. That was something my husband, Jim Wells, remembered her for, because he enjoyed those meals thoroughly. Mom was a great cook.

She liked to hunt mushrooms and talked about the time she walked back to the house with mushrooms so huge she stacked them in her arms like firewood. She would also take me squirrel hunting when I was a child and make me walk around the tree so the squirrel would come around to her side so she could get a shot at it. She would pack up peanut butter and tomato sandwiches to eat on our hunting expeditions. Mom would make squirrel pot pie and would have me walk down to our Amish neighbors with a quarter for parsley to put the pot pie. She and dad always had huge gardens and would can all this food and most times it would never get eaten because there would be so much. I remember one time she was canning and a jar exploded cutting a vein. She wrapped a towel around it and feeling lightheaded was able to make it to my Aunt Mable Rowe's house and had Mable drive her to the Doctor. While there, she was telling the Dr. to hurry as she didn't want me getting off the bus and thinking she was murdered with all that blood in the kitchen. She was also concerned I might get cut by the glass still laying around.

Another fond memory of mom was playing games Sunday after the meals and the sense of competiveness she had (she did let us win sometimes). But with other people, she was ruthless. At the Flint and Walling picnics, she always tried to beat out Cora in the rolling pin throwing contest. Mom usually won, too.

She also loved rocking and singing to her grandchildren. I remember her not being very talented singing but the grandkids (Tom, Rob, and Jamie) sure loved it.

I remember Mom not believing in stealing or fibbing but it was not beneath her to quickly reach down and snip off a cutting or start of a plant for her and Dad's beautiful flower gardens. They sold flowers and trees for many years at Ashley, though they did not make much profit off of that particular enterprise.

Mom used to do the laundry with a wringer washing machine. She thought that was quite a modern appliance for a while. It was white, without a lid, and would agitate (swish the clothes back and forth) and then drain out. She would wring the clothes out by hand (feeding it between rollers to squeeze the water out). Then she would put rinse water in and start up the washer again. Then again squeeze the clothes through the wringer. Then she would put the clothes out on the clothes line in the back yard to dry.

Mom, one time, was feeling bad about turning 49 and was complaining to a lot of people. I told her (after just learning this new word), that she was not old, she wasn't even half a "century" yet. She thought that was hilarious.

I always heard tales (including from mom) about her and dad running off to Howe Military to get married. Some people said they ran off to keep it a secret from Dad's family until he could go up and tell them himself and they wouldn't immediately "cut" off money for college. And I heard they kept it a secret from everyone. Iola Gaetz (the person that went with them and stood up with them) said everyone knew except for the school. You just didn't go to school when you were married so they kept it a secret so mom could finish high school. Iola was dating a friend of Dad's at TriState college. Dad (Russell) had just broken up with someone and Iola decided to fix him up with a friend. Mom was that friend. Iola is in the Nursing home (Betz) in Auburn as of June 1999. She is and was a wonderful lady. She said mom was "full of it." She said Golda was a lot of fun to be around and very ornery. She also confirmed Mom was a bit of a tomboy with all of those brothers she was around.

Her birth is recorded as Rowe, November 17, 1911 Female in "Index to birth records DeKalb Co. 1882-1920". She is buried in Circle Cemetery, Steuben Co., IN.

See Pages I, II, VI, VII, X, XXIII, XXVII, XXXI, XLVI.

Notes for Russell Thomas Mills:
Recollections of Russell Mills, by his daughter Roselyn Wells: Russell spoke French growing up and wore a kilt as a child, as he was of Scottish Descent. He would say that is why he was so stingy when we would ask for money, because he was Scottish. Dickinson's Landing, where he grew up has since been flooded. He told stories of running away to work on the boats at 14 (his father was a Pilot). His father knew where he was (on a friend's ship) and therefore let him stay. Every summer, before he went to college at Tri State University, he worked on the boats. Russell was a goal tender, playing Canadian amateur hockey. Just shy of graduating from Tri-State, he received an offer to work for E.I. Dupont as a Chemical Engineer and Salesman. He worked for DuPont for almost 23 years and had many patents on file in his name under DuPont. Unfortunately he signed away money rights to those patents over to DuPont. But still, he made very good money there, getting raises during the depression. He mentioned buying $400 worth of toys for his children one Christmas during the depression. He was stationed at Niagara Falls for many years. He talked of having the first TV on the block and one of the first home movie cameras. His job then sent him to Waukesha and Wautosa, Wisconsin. He tried farming part time in Wisconsin and was fairly successful. Due to a high stressful job, advise from his doctor about that stress, and because Golda wanted to be near her family, they made the decision to move back to Indiana. He bought a 60 acre farm and tried farming. This was during the time when larger farm operations started getting more efficient and many small farmers had a difficult time. He lost everything and took the first job he could get quickly to support his family, at Flint and Walling, Kendallville. He operated machinery and became an inspector in the years before his retirement. He never lost his French accent and a nurse once said he had a very sexy voice. After Golda died he married Peggy Nelson Rowe (Allen Rowe's widow). They had a place on Barton Lake, where he could fish to his heart's content, and lived in Florida during the winter where he enjoyed retired life with Peggy. They played bingo together, worked on many crafts, and traveled to see their many friends in California, Canada, etc. They especially enjoyed Cruises and fishing in the ocean. Here in Auburn they divided their time living at Barton Lake and at Peggy's house in Auburn. He and Golda are buried at Circle Cemetery. He died of congenital heart disease. He also developed diabetes in his 60's.

I recently found a rough draft of a resume that my father made in 1963. It was in some old papers that I had stored that I had not seen for a long time. It said "1923-26 Summer Vacations Canadian Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River Steamships: Deckhand, watchman, and wheelsman. 1927 & 1928 Open Navigation Season (April-Dec) on the Great Lakes Motor Ships, Steel Electrician & Steel Vendor. Chartered by U.S. Steel Product Shipping Co. Cleveland O. Worked as ordinary seaman, A.B. Seaman. 1930-53 E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co, Inc. Electrochemical Department. 1930-33 Chemical Research & Training. Worked on the improvement of products and analytical procedures, Niagara Falls, Lab & Plant. 1933-36 Peroxygen Products Division, Niagara Falls Research & Sales Service Lab. Worked on Product Improvement, Development of New Bleaching Procedures, along with Laboratory investigations on customer sample complaints. From the use of our peroxides in bleaching and oxidation. 1936-46 Peroxygen Products Sales Div. Serviced Existing Peroxide Bleaching & Oxidation Processes in Customer Plants in the Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Chicago District Area. Introduced or field tested new bleaching & oxidation procedures to expand our sales in all northern states. (Maine to Oregon) 1946-53 Chicago district area sales. Lived in Milwaukee - Technical Salesman- I acted as Product Technical Saleman to all prospective customers of peroxide. Chicago District and as salesman of all "elchem" chemicals to most of the paper & pulp mills in upper Mich, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, as well as, to some chemical jobbers, paint, metals, and textile accounts in the Milwaukee area. 1953-1957 Purchased & Operated a farm at Ashley, IN. 1957-63 Flint & Walling Mfg. Co Kendallville. Worked in the machine shop as drill press operator, some turret lathe operation on night shift in 1957. Then bullard operator and set up and operator of bullards. Technical papers: Co-author of several technical papers of groundwood pulp bleaching and published in T.A.P.P.I. Technical Publications and pulp and paper journals 1944-46. I delivered two of these papers at the New York City Nationa Conventions of the Technical Association of the Pulp & Paper Industry Feb. 1944 at the Hotel Commodore."

871. Wilson S.[8] Rowe (David Miles[7], Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born November 30, 1912, and died December 1984 in Valporaiso. He married Laura Sowinski 1940.

Notes for Wilson S. Rowe:
Wilson's nickname is Pete. His birth is recorded as Male Rowe in "birth records DeKalb Co. 1882-1944" In the August 27, 1937 Steuben Republican it says, "Wilson Rowe and two boy friends of Gary were Sunday guests in the D. M. Rowe home." This was David Miles and Jennora's house. In 1974, he is living at Route 5, Long Lake, Valporaiso, IN. Pete loved his bushes and shrubs. He had a golf cart in later years to get around his property. I remember thinking they had such a wonderful beautiful home and the nursery was something to see. Dad and he would get together and talk about shrubs and flowers, the best times to plant and various planting and growing techniques. See pages: I, II, VI, X, XI, XII, XII, XIV, XVI, XLVI, XLIX.

Notes for Laura Sowinski:

Laura was always so sweet. I don't think I ever so her frown at anyone. I remember going to her home with the girls and the girls were so fascinated by the bullfrogs she had in her pond. Amanda had this huge frog, holding it, and the frog started to jump at Aunt Laura and it startled her to see this huge frog coming at her. Phillip now owns their family home.

He married Mabel E. Byers August 25, 1935 in Auburn, IN.

Notes for Horace Wilson Husselman:
He had a half brother Oak Husselman who was an attorney in Auburn. Oak has a son that is also an attorney in Auburn.

His obituary in the Evening Star, dated Nov 17, 1969 says, "Funeral services for Horace Husselman, 57, owner and operator of The Hamilton News, were conducted at 2 p.m. this afternoon. The services were held at the Swift Funeral Home in Hamilton with Rev. James Rhine, former pastor of the United Methodist Church in Hamilton, officiating. The present pastor Rev. Amos McGinnis, assisted and burial followed in the Hamilton Cemetery. Mr. Husselman died about midnight Friday after suffering a sudden and unexpected heart attack. He had not been ill before the seizure and published the newspaper as usual on Thursday. He operated the newspaper business and a small job printing business by himself with some help from his wife. Mr. Husselman was born in Auburn on Nov. 11, 1912, the son of the late Calvin and Emma Rowe Husselman. He resided in Auburn before purchasing the newspaper from Cliff Johnston, now deceased, in 1945. He and Mabel Byers were married in a ceremony performed Aug. 25, 1936, in Elkhart. He was a member of the United Methodist Church, Hamilton. Surviving in addition to his wife are two daughters, Mrs. Marlene Gnagy, Hamilton and Mrs. Sandra Driver, Ludlow, TX, and six grandchildren. See pages: III, X.

Child of Donna Rowe and Harry Armstrong is:

1383 i. Bill[9] Armstrong, born 1922.

876. Arthur Edward[8] Rowe (Elza A.[7], Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born October 15, 1904 in Sedan, Indiana, and died May 1979 in Noble, Co, Kendallville, IN. He married (1) Ruth M. Hoover May 21, 1932 in Allegan, MI. He married (2) Leona Bordner May 21, 1932 in Allegan, Michigan.

Notes for Arthur Edward Rowe:
Written by Darlene Howard: "Arthur Rowe was my father. He was a gentle man, and all us kids knew he loved us. If and whenever he got mad at one of us, he just wouldn't talk to us for a while. I think that hurt more than ever getting a whippin'. I remember as a kid that Dad would pile all of us in a horse drawn wagon and pick up kids along the way and take us to the free movies. The movies were shown on the side of the building. Dad worked in Flint and Walling in Kendallville for years, then he worked for McCray and for a Wire Co. in Kendallville. He also laid stone and made several walls in Kendallville, two of which I know is still standing. One is down by Bixler Lake off Diamond St. and other is on Road 6 right outside Kendallville. He had a lot of heart attacks but that never stopped him from working. I remember once he had just came home from the hospital and the next day he was out putting hayup. He built the house we lived in on the Angling Road. When we moved into the house it had one bedroom downstairs and one upstairs. He put additions onto the house, and put one outside wall up entirely of stone. There wasn't anything that my father couldn't do. He loved working with his hands and made and invented a lot of stuff. I think back in the 50's I was the only one who mowed grass with a electric lawn mower. He had put a little motor on one of those old push mowers and it had a long cord on it. You just plugged it in and mowed. I think that is where I learned real quick to splice a electric wire. Many times I mowed over it and cut it in two. He also made picture frames and furniture. He had a nice little business going on out of his shop. He died of cancer. Dad was always there for us." See pages IV, V, L.

Notes for Leona Bordner:
Her mother was born in Zanesville, Ohio. Her grandparents were from Zanesville and Youngstown, Ohio. Leona's parents are buried in Kimmel, IN. One of her mother's brothers was once a candidate for the U.S. Presidency. This is from the notes of Darlene Howard. Leona's father owned a pool hall in Kimmel, IN. Her mother was a diabetic, and is thought to have died from a diabetic coma. Her father had a younger brother who was a dwarf, they called him Uncle Shorty. Her parents were Joseph Bordner and Gertrude Vandergriff. See page V.

877. Cecil Albert[8] Rowe (Elza A.[7], Zachariah[6], Jacob G.[5] Row, George[4], John Frederich[3], George Friederich[2] Rau, Phillip Jacob[1] Rauh/Rau) was born 1906, and died July 02, 1988 in Fairfield Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana. He married Evelyn Parks/Parr.

Notes for Cecil Albert Rowe:
Cecil was sometimes called Zeke. He died at age 81. Death Records of DeKalb Co. In the "Fifty Years Ago, Our Hometown Veterans Were In The News" compiled by the DAR DeKalb Co., IN, it says, "Two Garrett brothers who are in the armed forces are Privates Cecil and Virgil Eugene Rowe. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elza Rowe of 408 North Walsh St. Cecil, the elder, attended the schools in Richland township before the family moved to Garrett. He was employed for several years in the garage operated by Ora E. Donley and later, took employment as a mechanic in Ft. Wayne, where he was living when he was inducted into the army last June. He is stationed at Goldsboro, N.C. His wife, the former Evelyn Parks of Helmer, and their nine year old son, Raymond, live in an apartment in the Elza Rowe residence.....see Virgil's information for the rest.. Another article in the same book says, "This Garrett soldier, now serving overseas, is the husband of Mrs. Evelyn Rowe of 405 Covell St. and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elza Rowe of 408 North Walsh St. Prior to his enlistment in the army, he was employed at the Bueter Chevrolet garage Fort Wayne as a mechanic. He enlisted Oct 12, 1942 and received his basic training at Atlantic City, N.J. He entered the airplane mechanic's school at Seymour Johnston Field, Goldsboro, N. C. and received his diploma from that school March 30, 1943. He then was sent to Salt Lake City, and from there to Geiger Field, Wash. He was later transferred to the air base at Rapid City, S.D., and is now in England. Besides "keeping em flying" he serves as assistant aerial gunner. His wife and their young son, Ramon, live at the Covell street address. Sgt. Rowe has a brother, Virgil E. Rowe, better known as "Gene." who is also in the army and is also in England." Notes for Virgil Eugene Rowe:
Gene is Virgil's nickname. The first part of this article is under Cecil's information. "Virgil Eugene Rowe attended the Garrett public schools and was graduated in 1940. He was employed by the city to take care of the golf course and was also employed by the Garrett Ice Co. He was inducted into the army on September 26, 1942, and was sent to Camp Bowie, Texas. Three weeks ago he was transferred to Camp Hood, Texas." I talked to Virgil on the phone. He was in the armed forces for over 30 years. He was a very interesting person and remembered visiting Dave Rowe on the farm up in Steuben County. He remembered his dad talking about Edgar. For a time Edgar lived with Elza. Elza enjoyed having his family close to him. Virgil fought in the Korean and the Vietnam Wars. He, like my brother Ron, did not enjoy thinking or talking about those times. He was also talking about the Cedar Lake Cemetery and remembers when they dug their mother's grave someone found two or three skulls of children in that location. His mother had lost children and they wondered if the father dug the grave for them (that is what they did back then). See page V.

Notes for Rebecca Rowe:

Edith had a notation beside her name saying she was daughter of Betty. This is the Edith that we met when we were in PA in May of 1999. We met Edith Klingler in Salem, PA outside of Selinsgrove. She was very gracious and helpful. She had a lot of Salem Church memorabilia and gave us a Christmas card with the Salem Church on it. She also had little plaques above the doorway that had historic sites in the area, Salem (Row) Church included. She was very concerned when she heard that we hadn't eaten for about 10 hours and offered us pretzels and iced tea. She was not going to be there the next day (we had stopped to see if we could make an appointment to see her the next day) We originally were going to leave the next afternoon, but she talked us into staying another day so we could stop at the historical society at Millerburg. She made many phone calls, arranging for someone to meet us at the church to look for any Salem Church or Row History. They were very nice too, and gave us bulletins, a plate, and a "poster" paper from the bicentennial celebration they had in 1976. Edie also gave us a recent Salem History book the church had done. She had the cutest little dog and lived just down the street from the church.

She married James Anthony Wells November 05, 1971 in Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Ashley, Indiana, DeKalb County, son of Harvey Wells and Wilmetta Hanes.

Notes for Roselyn Iris Mills:
Her parent moved to Indiana in 1953. Living at home yet were Rod Mills, 10 and Rita Mills 6. At DeKalb High School Rozzy majored (yes, back then we majored in high school) in business, English, and Math. Her class was the first freshman class to go to DeKalb High School. In the summer's she worked at Sandy's (located where Kentucky Fried Chicken is now) in Angola. She was active on the newspaper staff (typing, helping set the pages, proofreading, and running it off). She was the circulation manager her senior year. Also, she was part of the yearbook staff her senior year. Roz enjoyed roaming the halls looking for good pictures. She maintained a B average and won a scholarship for her high SAT's, but did not utilize it. She was also the secretary of Future Business Leaders of America, was receptionist for her Office Lab Class, was in Drama Club, intramural volleyball, Spanish Club, Youth Club, Campus Life, and was in student service. She worked at Central Soya in Ft. Wayne until marrying Jim. Jim and she were very active at Pleasant Chapel for many years. They helped start up a Youth Club and was active in the neighborhood Bible School each year. She was an officer in the Fairfield PTO for two years, was a member of the advisory board at DeKalb Middle School and DeKalb High School. When her dad decided to sell the farm at Ashley, she and Jim bought it and lived there from 1973 until 1993. They bought a home in Auburn and rented a cottage in Hamilton for four years. Their daughters went to Hamilton during most of their High School years. Rozzy worked and was the Director of Pleasant Time Preschool at Pleasant Chapel church for 8 years. It must have been successful because they always had a waiting list. She also sold Avon. Rozzy and Jim enjoyed going to school plays and sports that they were involved in and were members of the Booster club. She also helped with various cheerleading projects for her daughter, Jaime, and was the Parent Representative for Volleyball for 1996 and 1997. Currently she is a member of DeKalb and Steuben Genealogy Societies. She is also a volunteer at Eckhart Public Library in the Genealogy Department. See pages XI, XII, XV, XIX, XLVIII.

Notes for James Anthony Wells:
Jim grew up in Waterloo. His first job was mopping floors at the Green Parrot (out of business). Jim went to school at DeKalb and graduated in 1971 also. He played football one year, played intramural, and was active in the Work program they had at DeKalb. He worked for Indiana Decorative in Waterloo during his high school years. He worked many hours after school and during the work program to help out with the finances at home after his mother passed away. His interests lie in target shooting (like his dad) and reading mysteries. Jim now works for Eaton (Dana) corporation and has been there for 25 years. He has in the past worked delivering apples, cleaning supplies, and in the factories (Bohn Aluminum and Flint and Walling) He has been active in the Pleasant Chapel Church, Youth Club, Bible School, and Preschool. His parents are Harvey Wells, son of John and Lizzie Wells and Wilmetta Hanes Wells, daughter of Harry and Wilmetta Hanes. See pages XI, XV, XIX.

She was a member of the English and Interdisciplinary Academic Teams, S.T.A.N.D., National Honor Society, Prom Committee, Dekko Scholarship Committee, musicals, plays, and a teacher helper. Her freshman volleyball team won NECC and she and her relay team broke 4 track records. One record had not been broken in 10 years. Jaime ran the 400 in 62 seconds and won many blue ribbons. She had gotten letters from various colleges asking is she was interested in playing sports in college. But she intends to devote her time to studying. Her grade point average at Ball State is over 3.8 and has been on the dean's list both semesters this year. She is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and is involved in their many activities. She has been asked to join the Alpha Lambda Delta because of her grade point average. In high school she received three scholarships. She also received awards for her academics in English Classes, World Literature, Composition, Chemistry, Anatomy, and French. Jaime received the All Area Steuben County Award for Track in 1997 for her 400 and her relay times. She also received the Marine award (presented to one Senior Girl Athlete), the lamp of learning award, the senior award, and was chosen for the Hoosier Girl's State Representative (given to one Hamilton girl). She was nominated for the Wendy's Heisman Award by the Athletic Director. Her senior year she was on the senior homecoming court and prom court. Jaime also recently got engaged to her "High School Sweetheart" Michael Hanni (see page XV) and they plan on marrying August 2000. See pages: XII, XV, and XIX.

Notes for Eugene C. Shatto:
Information from Eugene Shatto. We went out to his farm, north of Waterloo. He helped me check the information he had given me and helped me put names on some of the photos he let me photocopy. He talked of going out to see the Beggs family in Sandy Lake, PA. That sounded familiar and when I got back home, I looked it up and this is where I have traced Mary Jane's family to. She married Miles Allen (then Adam Shatto) in Trumball Co., Ohio and her father (I think Archibald Beggs) was there for a short time, as he shows up as a voter in Johnston Twp. where Miles and she got married. But before and after then, he lived in Sandy Lake, PA where Eugene remembered going as a child to visit relatives. He also thinks there is someone in the family (possibly him) that has a picture of a Grandma and Grandpa Shatto. This was in his father's handwriting so could possibly be Mary Jane Beggs Allen Shatto and Adam Shatto as these were his dad's grandparents. Hopefully we will see this picture sometime. He thought maybe he was visiting his mom's brother Courtney but I don't see his name anywhere and wondered if he would have been still living at that time. Maybe a son of his??? Eugene remembers Elenor Biggs/Beggs being his grandmother. This could be Calvin's wife. Another possibility is that Elenor is Mary Jane's niece. We will look into this more later. He remembers PA being very cold and the house being very cold. They had a feather bed and when you got into it, the sides came up and you sunk right in, and he remembers being toasty warm after that. He gave me a picture of everyone in his family except for himself.

MISS BETTY HUSSELMAN IS BRIDE IN AUBURN CEREMONY

United in Marriage with Robert Dilgard of Auburn-Ashley Road at 1947 the Christian Church

Miss Betty Husselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Husselman of the Auburn-Ashley road, became the bride of Robert Dilgard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dilgard, also of the Auburn-Ashley road, in a double ring ceremony performed at the Church of Christ in Auburn Friday afternoon at 1:30. Rev. Joseph Ferguson of near Auburn officiated. The immediate families of the couple were the only ones in attendance.

The couple was attended by Mrs. Evelyn Arnold of Auburn, a high school classmate of the bride, and Max Dilgard, a brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

The bride wore a two-piece light blue wool fitted jacket-type dress with brown accessories and carried a bouquet of white lilies. The matron of honor wore a light green crepe dress with a lace neckline. Her accessories were brown and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Dilgard is a graduate of Waterloo high school and was recently employed by the Indiana Bell Telephone company. Mr. Dilgard is a graduate of Auburn high school and for 15 months was a gunner on a B-29. Since his discharge from the service he has returned to farming.

The couple left for a wedding trip through the south. After their return they will reside on a farm two miles west of Auburn.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF DELIA HUSSELMAN

Four score years and eight, and then the sunset.

The light source has gone out, yet its brilliance will never dim.

Its energy continues to give warmth and love as it is reflected by every mortal it has touched.

We weep but we're not sad, we cry but we're glad for the precious memories that no vale can hide.

The highest world's measure of wealth is naught when compared to the real worth of a friend...a friend who has touched our lives, sharing, always caring and loving.

We now bow in thanks to God for a very special friend, and Mother. Her foot prints here make it easier to follow the path to the Eternal City where she is now receiving the reward of a Queen. We loved her.

YOUTH CRUSHED TO DEATH BY TRUCK

CECIL R. ROWE DIES FOLLOWING ACCIDENT HERE

Jammed Against Building By Truck Loaded With Cinders; Rupture of Liver Proves Fatal

LEAVES WIFE AND BABE

Crushed against a brick wall by a truck on which he was loading cinders, Cecil Richard Rowe, 23, of 1005 Middlebury Street, suffered injuries at 9 o'clock this morning from which he died at the Elkhart General Hospital 25 minutes later without regained consciousness.

Assisting His Father

He leaves a wife and a 15-months old son, Richard Henry.

The accident ocurred at the rear of the Northern Indiana Public Service Co. gas plant. Young Rowe was assisting his father, Henry Rowe, of 2438 East Jackson boulevard, who was standing at the south side of the truck loading cinders when the accident ocurred.

The young man died, from an internal rupture of the liver. His chest was bruised but not crushed, and he suffered other bruises about the body. He was attended at the hospital by Dr. L. A. Elliott.

The accident ocurred when the truck, which had been backed up about four feet from the rear wall of the building, slipped backward down a slight slope, which had been made by the removal of the cinders.

One rear wheel of the truck had been blocked with a brick but this was not sufficient to hold it. The emergency brake had also been set, but persons who examined the truck afterward said the brake was not working sufficiently.

Utters One Cry

The young man was working directly at the rear of the truck when it started to slip. He was standing with one side toward the truck. George Curtis of 911 Taylor Street, employed as a truck driver for the gas company, who was standing nearby, saw the truck start to move and shouted a warning. Rowe had just turned his head when the truck struck him, one corner pinning him against the building. Just as the truck hit him he cried "Help," and then lost consciousness.

His father and Mr. Curtis attempted unsuccessfully to push the truck ahead, but were unable to do so, and after five or ten minutes, assisted by workmen at the gas plant who had responded to cries for "help," the truck was pushed forward and Rowe was extricated.

He was taken to the hospital in the Henry Stephens ambulance and his father, who followed in a taxicab, arrived just after his son had died.

Neither the young man nor his father was employed by the gas company. Henry Rowe, who is a cement contractor, had been securing cinders at the gas plant for some time and using them to fill his lot on East Jackson boulevard road, where the old ice house was formerly located.

Lately the young man had been employed by the Sidway Topliff Co., but he had not been working for several days and this morning he volunteered to assist his father in securing a load of cinders.

Two Tons and a Half

The truck was almost full when the accident ocurred. It was estimated that the load on the truck weighed a ton and a half, and the truck, is a Ford weighing one ton.

Mr. Rowe was born at Grand Rapids, Mich., May 15, 1904, and had lived in Elkhart since he was two years old, having been brought here following the death of his mother. He completed his grade school education here and was a student for some time in the high school. He was married to Miss Nellie Bowlby of Elkhart three years ago. He, his wife and baby had made their home with his grandmother, Lydie Rowe, 1005 Middlebury Street, for some time.

Funeral arrangements had not been made this morning.

Mr. Rowe figured in an automobile accident two years ago in which he escaped but with slight scalp wounds. Driving south on Cassopolis street, Mr. Rowe failed to make the turn on Beardsley avenue and his car shot over a lawn, hurdled a retaining wall and fell 16 feet to the river bank, coming to a stop against a tree. The car was damaged beyond repair.

Mastodon Bones Sold Cheap Now Museum Pieces

Two yellowed newspaper clippings brought to this office by Mrs. David Rowe of Hudson, relate an interesting story of the finding of a mastodon on the Spindler farm one mile west of the Cedar Lake Church near Waterloo in 1898. This discovery of the skeleton was "news of the day" and was talked about for years in this area. Laurel Spindler, who found the mastodon skeleton, was a brother of Mrs. Rowe, and one of the clippings tells of the death of Mr. Spindler, in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1922, at the age of 57.

Mr. Spindler was born in DeKalb county on a farm south of Waterloo, later moving to a farm in Fairfield township, where he resided with his father Nickedemus Spindler. In 1902, Mr. Spindler moved to Cleveland, and for a number of years was employed as an elevator operator for a wholesale firm.

The article reprinted from the second clipping, is quoted from the Cleveland Plain Dealer of 1921:

Ten thousand years ago a mastodon, one of the largest of his breed that ever stalked the earth, waddled down to a mud bordered lake in what is now northern Indiana to browse among the rushes and to refresh himself in the limpid water.

The mastodon's feet, as large as bushel baskets, mired in the mud, and, as he struggled to free himself, he began to sink. He sank until his knees were in the mud, until his body was enmeshed, until only his head remained above ground.

The night descended, a night made hideous by the bellowing of the mastodon and finally the head of the big beast disappeared beneath the muck.

And that night in the late Pleistocene age a fortune was potentially within the grasp of L. G. Spindler, 3403 Searsdale Avenue S. W. Twenty-three years ago Mr. Spindler's fingers closed upon the fortune, but it slipped from his grasp. All of the fortune that he ever retained was $300.

Mr. Spindler, who is 56, is an elevator operator at the Forbes Chocolate Co. factory, Euclid Avenue and E. 66th street. He told about his adventure with the mastodon yesterday.

"In 1888 I was farming 160 acres near Waterloo, DeKalb county, Indiana, for my father," he said. "That year the spring was so rainy that I didn't have an opportunity to put in all my corn, and one field on muck land lay fallow all summer.

"It grew up into weeds, and September came, dry and hot. I wanted to prepare the muck for the next spring, but I was busy with my harvest and didn't have much time. So I set fire to the weeds, and a little while later I noticed the earth on fire around the roots of the corn stubble.

"The muck was half peat, and soon great holes were burned in the ground. To keep the fire from spreading, I dug ditches around the fire areas. Suddenly my spade struck something hard. I dug down and unearthed a tooth. The sight of it turned my blood cold, it was so large. My first thought was that the devil was coming to punish me for digging on Sunday. The tooth weighed thirteen pounds. I dug on and soon unearthed the skull.

"Then I covered up the hole to conceal my find, and the next day I got Jerry King, a neighbor, to help me dig. News that a mastodon had been found on the farm spread rapidly. Within a few days two or three hundred persons were walking over the farm, probing with sticks for the skeleton. I had to guard my find night and day.

"Jerry and I dug with wooden paddles to keep from marring or breaking the bones, and as soon as we unearthed a bone we plunged it in hot oil to preserve it."

The press spread the news of Spindler's find, and a taxidermist of Rochester, N. Y., arrived and offered him $500 for the skeleton.

"Five hundred dollars looked like a lot of money to me then," he said. "If I had been dealing in corn or potatoes I would have known a reasonable price when I saw it. The skeleton was sold later to the museum of Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, for between $18,000 and $20,000.

"If I had got that $20,000 I could have bought the old farm and another quarter section to go with it. But I didn't. I suppose it's no good crying over spilled milk now."

The skeleton, according to Mr. Spindler, was one of the most perfect mastodon fossils ever unearthed in the United States.

---

"William, I used to have a luxuriant beard like you but when I looked at myself in the mirror I decided to shave it off."

Quick as a flash, William retorted: "Sir, I once had a face like yours, but I decided to grow a beard."

The Mastodon, now at the Carnegie institute in Pittsburgh, Pa., was found on the Spindler farm, a mile west of the Cedar Lake Church near Waterloo, in September, 1898. The discovery of this skeleton was "News of the Day" and was talked about for years in the area. It was the late Laurel Spindler who discovered this mastodon.

Mr. Spindler was born in Dekalb County on a farm south of Waterloo. He later moved to the farm in Fairfield Township where he resided with his father, Nicodemus Spindler. In 1902, Mr. Spindler moved to Cleveland where he was employed by The Forbes Company until his death in 1922, at the age of 57.

Many years ago a mastodon, one ofthe largest of his breed that ever stalked the earth waddled down to a mud-bordered lake in what is now territory near Waterloo and Auburn to browse among the rushes and to re-fresh himself in the limpid water.

MASTODON SANK IN MUD

The mastodon's feet as large as bushel baskets, mired in the mud and as he struggled to free himself, began to sink. He sank until his knees were in the mud, until his body was enmeshed, and until only his head remained above the ground. The night descended, a night made hideous by the bellowing of the mastodon and finally the head of the big beast disappeared beneath the muck. That night a fortune was potentially within the grasp of Laurel G. Spindler, but all he ever obtained was $500 for his find. In 1898, when Laurel was farming 190 acres near Waterloo for his father, the Spring was so rainy that he didn't have an opportunity to put in all the corn, and one field on the muck-land was full of water. It grew up into weeds and September came hot and dry. The Late Mr. Spindler told his family: " I wanted to prepare the muck for the next Spring and I was busy with my harvest and didn't have much time, so I set fire to the weeds and a little later I noticed the earth on fireäround roots. The muck was half peat and soon great holes were burned in the ground. To keep the fire from spreading, I dug ditches around the fire areas. Suddenly my spade struck something hard."

"I dug down and unearthed a tooth. The sight of it turned my blood cold it was so large. My first thought was that the devil was coming to punish me for digging on Sunday. The tooth weighed 13 pounds. I dug on and soon unearthed the skull. Then I covered up the hole to conceal my find and next day I got Jerry King, a neighbor, to help me dig. News that a mastodon had been found on the farm spread rapidly."

GUARDED DAY AND NIGHT

"Within a few days, two or three hundred persons were walking over my farm probing with sticks for the skeleton. I had to guard my find, night and day. Jerry and I dug with wooden paddles to keep from marring or breaking the bones, and as soon as we unearthed a bone we plunged it into hot oil to preserve it."

"The press spread the news and a taxidermist of Rochester, N. Y., came and offered me $500 for the skeleton. Five hundred dollars looked like a lot of money to me then but if I had been dealing in corn, or potatoes I would have known a reasonable price."

"Later the taxidermist sold the skeleton to the Andrew Carnegie Institute for $20,000. If I had received that $20,000 I could have bought the old farm and another quarter section to go with it; but I didn't, so I suppose it's no use crying over spilled milk."

This skeleton, according to Mr. Spindler, was one of the most perfect mastodon fossils ever unearthed in an section of the United States.

MURVEN C. TUTTLE 29, MURDERED

THE WATERLOO PRESS — Thursday, December 2, 1965

James E. Miller, 27, Confesses Slaying Waterloo Young Man With A High Powered Rifle

James Miller, 27, of Waterloo, has admitted the fatal shooting of Murven C. Tuttle, 29, also of Waterloo, in a shooting which took place last Sunday night at approximately 11:45 p.m.

Tuttle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tuttle, of 355 Pine st, Waterloo, was gunned down as he stood near the street on the property adjourning his parents of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cherry, just north of his home. Tuttle resided with his parents.

The DeKalb county coroner, Dr. Floyd B Coleman of Waterloo, said death was near instantaneous

Authorities said Tuttle apparently was shot with a high powered rifle slug.

The scene of the slaying is a quiet residential neighborhood in Waterloo.

Dead Over Six Hours

Tuttle lay dead a short distance from the front door of his home for an estimated 6½ hours before the body was found about 6:45 a.m. Monday by his father.

Assisting the Sheriff Dorsie Likens, Detective McKown and the coroner are Waterloo Police Chief Harvey Wells, Waterloo Patrolman William Long, brother-in-law of the victim and State Troopers Lester Carpenter and J. M. Arlington.

Penetrated the Heart

Dr. Coleman, performed an autopsy on the body said the bullet entered the chest on the left side, penetrated the heart, left lung and struck the spinal column before it left the body.

Fragments of the bullet and the copper jacket of the bullet were found in the body.

Disturbance Heard

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle told police they head retired at about 10:30 p.m. and they didnot hear the shot or any noise at the time the fatal shot was fired.

Neighbors in the immediate vicinity told of hearing a brief disturbance, what they thought to be a car backfiring (the shot), and one reported seeing a car speeding away to the north, but the party didnot think anything amiss because all was quiet after this and retired for the night.

Waterloo Officer Long was the first officer at the scene, followed a few minutes later by the police chief and sheriff and the coroner.

Father Finds Body In Yard

Mr. Tuttle was found lying in the yard near the parents home by the father upon leaving the home to go to work at the State Highway deparment garage in Waterloo.

The victim was also an employee of the Highway garage.

The father said he walked to his car parked in front of the house and started to drive away when he noticed in the dim morning light, something lying next to the road and believed it to be a Halloween dummy that the neighborhood children had made and had apparently dropped there. He said he drove to the corner, a short distance from the home. For some reason he turned his car around and switched on the bright lights and upon driving back he noticed his son's jacket on the ground. He stopped his car and got out and found the body of his son lying on his back just north of the Richard Cherry lot, a few feet in from the curb.

The victim's pickup truck was parked in front of the Tuttle residence.

Final Rites Wednesday

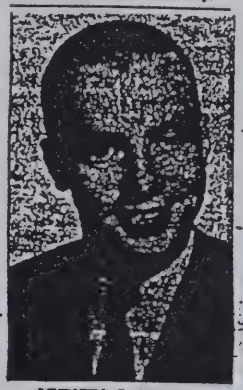
The body was removed to the Graffis funeral home in Waterloo where funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday with the Rev. C. Samuel Overmyer, pastor of the First Evangelical United Brethren church in Waterloo, officiating. Burial was in the Corunna cemetery.



MURVEN C. TUTTLE

The young man was born in DeKalb county, Oct. 30, 1936, the son of Charles Edward and Esther Roop Tuttle.

He was a graduate of the Waterloo high school and in Sept. 1958 enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He served for four-years in the Continental United States before his discharge in 1962. He was in the reserves for two years after his separation from active service.

He was married and divorced. He had been employed at Warner-Motive Division in Auburn until 2 years ago when he accepted employment with the State Highway dept. as a truck driver.

Surviving with the parents are a son, Kevin Lee, 8 years, who resides with his mother at Fort Wayne; a brother, James, Rt. 3, Auburn; a sister, Mrs. William Long, Waterloo and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Murven Roop, Rt. 3, Auburn.

Miller Arrested

James Miller was immediately suspected and brought in for questioning on two occasions Monday morning. Both times he denied all knowledge of the murder.

Sheriff Likens reported Tuesday morning that he had Miller picked up for further questioning by State Troopers Eugene Reese and J. M. Colgate and Waterloo Police Chief Wells and Policeman Long of Waterloo.

The young man was picked up on the north edge of Waterloo Monday evening about 9 p.m. Tuesday morning Miller was taken to Elkhart for a polygraph (lie detector) test.

Admits Slaying

Miller, separated from his wife, Sandra, lives with his two sons at the home of his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs.

Theron Tuttle, 47, killed in auto mishap Friday

Feb. 1977

Theron O. Tuttle, 47, Rt. 2, Churubusco, formerly of Garrett, was pronounced dead on arrival at Parkview Memorial Hospital, Fort Wayne, at 11:20 p.m. Friday after being struck by a car along Ind. 3.

Mr. Tuttle was standing along the highway exchanging information about an earlier, minor accident with another motorist when he was struck and killed by an automobile driven by James D. Bovie, 31, Huntertown. Bovie was released Saturday morning on $200 bond after being charged with driving under the influence.

Police said the accident occurred about 10:55 p.m. on Indiana 3, north of Fort Wayne, when Rita Comings, Churubusco, had been involved in a minor accident with Tuttle, and the two were exchanging information when the Bovie vehicle slid and struck Tuttle, who was standing near Ms. Comings' car in the southbound lane.

Services will be held at 10:30 this morning at the McKee Funeral Home and burial will follow in Christian Union Cemetery. Rev. William H. Loucks and Rev. Tom Deal, pastor of Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren will officiate.

Mr. Tuttle had resided in Churubusco for the past seven years and was employed as a warehouseman for Wayne Warehouse, Fort Wayne. He was born in DeKalb County on March 31, 1929, the son of Mrs. Sadie (Haynes) Tuttle and the late Clair O. Tuttle. His mother resides at 600 South Franklin street.

Other survivors include one son, Donald Tuttle, Waterloo; two daughters, Christine Tuttle and Rene Tuttle, both of Waterloo; three brothers, Chalmer, Rt. 2, Avilla, Frank (Bud), Garrett, and George, Churubusco; two sisters, Mrs. Lee (Marilyn) Cook and Mrs. Leo (Carolyn) Debes, both of Rt. 4, Auburn; and one foster sister, Mrs. James (Martha) Pope, Lubbock, Tx.

Mr. Tuttle was a member of Post 499 American Legion and Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren, Rt. 4, Auburn.

The family has requested memorials to a favorite charity.

A TRIBUTE

You brought him home, your newborn son.
You watched him grow, it sure was fun.
He got into mischief, got caught under chairs,
was clumsy at times and rolled down the stairs.
You brought him up, and took him to school,
You taught him respect — and the Golden Rule.
You saw him through chicken pox, measles and mumps,
through laughter and tears, through bruises and bumps.

I know how it must feel to lose a son;
I understand better because I have one.

Mother, you know you brought him up right.
Your relationship with him was right.
But his heavenly home has called him
And we must survive the interim.

We love you and worry to watch our sorrow

TRIBUTE FOR BERNARD GIVEN to Peggy + Russ Mills. Written by Paul Sell.

INJURY IN STORM RESULTS IN DEATH OF JOHN C. SHATTO

John Calvin Shatto, 71, died at the Garrett Community hospital Wednesday from injuries suffered in the windstorm which swept the Hudson area on June 10.

He died from a fractured hip and internal injuries.

Mr. Shatto had gone into the front yard of his home near Hudson on June 10 to pick up a large branch from a tree which had been blown down by the winds.

Another gust of wind swept Mr. Shatto against a fence post with such force that it caused the fractured hip and internal injuries.

The body was removed to the Kistler funeral home at Hudson where funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday.

The Rev. Vern Noll, pastor of the Ashley Church of God, will officiate at the services and burial will follow in the Fairfield Center cemetery.

Mr. Shatto was born March 12, 1892, in Fairfield township, and he had been a resident of the area all of his lifetime. He resided at the late home for the past 32 years. He was the son of Calvin and Eleanor Boggs Shatto.

He and Mina V. Hanes were united in marriage in a ceremony performed April 10, 1916. He was a retired farmer.

Surviving in addition to his wife are two sons, Elsworth J. Shatto of Rt. 2, Angola and Eugene C. Shatto of Rt. 1, Waterloo; two daughters, Julia Swihart of Rt. 1, Ashley and Anna Wickersham of Auburn; 16 grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Teresa Davidson of San Francisco, Calif.

WOMAN SLIGHTLY INJURED IN MISHAP

Mrs. Golda M. Mills, 49, of Rt. 1, Ashley, suffered numerous minor facial cuts late Friday afternoon when the automobile she was driving veered off a county road in Fairfield township, DeKalb county and plunged through a fence.

Deputy Sheriff Alto Swain said Mrs. Mills did not require medical attention for the minor cuts sustained when strands of wire on the fence on the Ora Brand farm shattered the windshield.

The accident happened on County road 17, 1.8 miles south and 2.5 miles west of Ashley.

Mrs. Mills was driving a 1959 Chevrolet south on the county road when the car suddenly veered to the right side of the road. The officer said a tie rod apparently broke. The car plunged into a ditch and through the fence.

Damage to the car was estimated at $200 with $30 damage to 30 feet of fence and two posts.

Lockwood - Rowe Wed In Waterloo Church

The First Evangelical United Brethren Church of Waterloo was the scene of the wedding of Nancy Carol Lockwood and Michael David Rowe, at 2:30 in the afternoon on January 21, 1962.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lockwood of Waterloo and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rowe of near Waterloo.

The marriage vows were read by Rev. N. E. Detroy before the alter graced with baskets of gladioli and mums. Miss Helen Jones gave an organ prelude of "Through the Years", "O' Perfect Love", "Wedding Prayer" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desire".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor-length gown of white satin brocade. The fitted bodice was styled with a Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was gathered at the waist. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a beaded crown. She carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses.

Miss Linda White served as maid of honor and a sister of the bride, Miss Alice Lockwood was bridesmaid. They were attired in street-length dresses of blue satin. Their matching headpieces with circular veils complemented the dresses. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Serving as best man was James Mason. Ushers were DeWayne, Gerald and Larry Lockwood.

Mrs. Lockwood chose a dress of blue with white accessories for her daughter's wedding, while Mrs. Rowe wore a light green dress with white accessories. Their corsages were pink carnations.

A reception for the young couple was held in the fellowship hall of the church with Mrs. Clifford Hall, Mrs. Carl Till, Mrs. Linda (Muzzillo) Hutton, Carol Till, Janet Hall, Jean Sebert, and Carol Leichtlidner serving. Miss Diane Harding had charge of the guest book.

After a short wedding trip to upper Michigan, the couple will be at home on Route 2, Waterloo.

Jennora Spindler Miller Rowe
and # Henry Miller Family

I am so sorry to put the Guy and Delia Miller Line at the back of the book. My computer program seperated step-children from the family tree, when I thought they would go in with the rest of the family. Guy and Delia were very much a part of the Rowe family and family reunions for so many years. We loved them very much and enjoyed them while we had them.

These are Henry and Jennora Spindler's descendants.

Descendants of Henry Miller

Generation No. 1

1. Henry[1] Miller was born Abt. 1853 in Bandish, Germany, and died in DeKalb County, Indiana. He married (1) Jennora Spindler, daughter of Nicholas Spindler and Barbara Amstead/Amstutz. He married (2) Unknown.

Notes for Henry Miller:
Henry and Jennora had two children. Guy and Delia Miller. He had a son by a former marriage. He ran away after Henry died and Jennora remarried. Delia had contact with him later when he was living in Michigan. Henry's parents were Geore and Barbara (Storme) Miller

Notes for Jennora Spindler:
Rod Mills recalls, "Grandma cooked on a wood burning stove. She would bake bread, which was delicious right out of the oven. She had a sewing machine that she pumped with her foot. She would serve us milk warm, usually right after the cows were milked. I learned quickly that I didn't like this raw milk. Their home did not have electricity or indoor plumbing. The home burned after 1952." Jennora apparently added three years to her age when she married Henry. In her marriage records, she said she was 19 but she was actually 16 years of age.

See pictures on pages I, VI, XVII, XXIII, XXVII in the Rowe book.

Jennora's Grandparents were Jacob and Mary Spindler. See page XXIV in the Rowe book.

For a map where Nicholas had land in Union Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana see page XXXVIII in the Rowe Book (it is under his father's name, a part owner).

Children of Henry Miller and Jennora Spindler are:

2 i. Guy[2] Miller, born September 01, 1893 in DeKalb County, Indiana; died June 01, 1975 in Steuben County, IN.

Notes for Guy Miller:
Guy died a bachelor. He bought the Dave and Jennora Rowe farm and lived and farmed there until he died. He was a very hard worker. He served in WW1. He was Pvt 3 in Co 1 Tr Bn 158 DS. He served from June 15, 1918 to May 1, 1819. Service Information from Scott Vincent. He is buried close to his mother and stepfather in the Circle Cemetery, Steuben Co. He is also closely buried to his sister Golda Rowe Mills. (see pages II, VI, XIV, XVII, XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII)

\+ 3 ii. Delia Berniece Miller, born August 06, 1896 in Fairfield Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana; died January 29, 1985 in Auburn, Indiana.

Child of Henry Miller and Unknown is:

4 i. Unknown[2] Miller.

Generation No. 2

3. Delia Berniece[2] Miller (Henry[1]) was born August 06, 1896 in Fairfield Twp, DeKalb Co., Indiana, and died January 29, 1985 in Auburn, Indiana. She married Howard Earl Husselman January 19, 1919.

Notes for Delia Berniece Miller:
Aunt Delia made these great soft cookies. She would freeze them and bring them out when she had kids over. I have the recipe (they are made from sour milk) and my daughters absolutely love them. I loved playing in the barn with

Aunt Delia's kittens. When she would laugh she would bend over and put her whole body into her laugh. You couldn't help but laugh with her. She always talked about when she would have to cook for the threshers and sometimes mom would help. They would have to cook a huge meal for them and Aunt Delia said that they sure could eat. Delia and Earl are buried in Woodlawn Cemetery. (see pages I, II, VI, X, XII, XVII, XXIII)

Notes for Howard Earl Husselman:
His parents were Adam W. (Nov 9, 1859 Grant Twp.) and Amy (McCague) Husselman (Oct 14, 1860-Aug 2, 1912). He was an active Republican and was elected DeKalb Co. Commissioner in 1956 and served three terms. He served on the DeKalb Co. Fair board. He was very interested in the history of DeKalb County. Information from obituaries and from Scott Vincent, Earl's great grandson. (see pages I, XIV, XVII, XXIII)

Children of Delia Miller and Howard Husselman are:

\+ 5 i. Bonnie Mae[3] Husselman, born June 17, 1923 in DeKalb Co..

6 ii. Betty Ruth Husselman, born April 16, 1925 in DeKalb Co.. She married Bob Dilgard January 31, 1947 in Church of Christ, Auburn, IN.

Notes for Betty Ruth Husselman:
Birth information from "DeKalb Co. Birth Records". I remember Betty, having a cottage up by Coldwater (it might have been Kinderhook). I loved going there. She used to sit by me and tease about how she was taller sitting down but I was taller standing up. We share a birthday, April 16, and I always thought that was special. Dad, when he was alive, used to constantly talk about how Betty hasn't changed through all the years. And it is true, you look at pictures, and there might be twenty years in between but she still looked the same in both pictures. She has always been this lively fun person to be around and I have always been proud that she is my cousin. Betty is a very active person, traveling, volunteering different places including the ACD Museum here in Auburn. (see pages I, XVII, XXIII, XVII)

Notes for Bob Dilgard:
His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dilgard. I remember Bob's laugh and his dimples. I always thought he was nice looking for an old guy. Little did I know for a while, that he wasn't that old, his hair had just prematurely turned white. He loved working at his job, construction. He was very involved in restoring old houses and he did a wonderful job.

\+ 7 iii. LLoyd Warren Husselman, born March 02, 1921 in Grant Twp, DeKalb Co., In; died January 03, 1996 in Indiana.

Generation No. 3

5. Bonnie Mae[3] Husselman (Delia Berniece[2] Miller, Henry[1]) was born June 17, 1923 in DeKalb Co.. She married Martin Christlieb.

Notes for Bonnie Mae Husselman:
Information from Scott Vincent, Obituaries, and family history. Birth information for Bonnie from "Birth Records of DeKalb Co." Bonnie reminds me (Roz) very much of her mom. She and her husband lived up by Nevada Mills for many years. We used to go up and visit. (see pages I, XII, XIV, XVII, XXIII)

Notes for Martin Christlieb:
His mother, Marie Christlieb is living in LaGrange in 1997. Information from obituaries, Scott Vincent, and family history. (see page XIII)

Children of Bonnie Husselman and Martin Christlieb are:

\+ 8 i. Marlene Fay[4] Christlieb, born October 22, 1940.

\+ 9 ii. Tom Lee Christlieb, born July 30, 1944.

7. LLoyd Warren[3] Husselman (Delia Berniece[2] Miller, Henry[1]) was born March 02, 1921 in Grant Twp, DeKalb Co., In, and died January 03, 1996 in Indiana. He married Ellen Rosenberry March 16, 1951 in Auburn, Indiana.

Notes for LLoyd Warren Husselman:
He was a member of the Cedar Lake Church of Christ and was retired from Stanadyne, Garrett, with 15 years of service. I remember all the animals at Lloyd's. He had peacocks, deer, buffalo, and just all kinds of animals and he enjoyed people stopping to see them. Birth information from "DeKalb Co. Birth Records". (see page I, XVII, XXIII)

Notes for Ellen Rosenberry:
Member of the Cedar Lake Church of Christ in Waterloo. She was the daughter of Fred and Grace Roseberry. Taken from her obituary, provided by her grandson Scott Vincent.
